Atomic 'Frill' Spending Flayed

VA, Atom Research Face Cut

'Hobby' Training For GI's Scored

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Cash money cuts of nearly nine per cent for the Atomic Energy commission and seven per cent for the Veterans administration were suggested today by the House appropriations committee.

At the same time the committee called for a halt to "hobby" training under the GI bill of rights.

It also said Atomic Energy commission officials should show less reluctance to consider the "practical realities" of spending government funds.

In a $5.795,048,921 bill to finance six agencies during the year starting July 1, the committee recommended:

1. Atomic Energy commission: $501,850,000 in cash—a cut of $48,150,000 from what President Truman asked but $326,850,000 more than was appropriated this year—plus $400,000,000 in contract authority, the amount the President asked. The actual money to pay for contracts let under the additional authority will be voted next year or later.

VET FUND SLASHED

2. Veterans administration: $5,-125,309,000 in cash—a cut of $354,600,000—plus $43,000,000 in contract authority as requested. The total is $649.850,000 less than the VA had available this year.

3. Maritime commission: $102,-377,831 in cash—a cut of $39,475,-139—plus $75,000,000 in contract authorization, $14,858,000 more than was asked.

4. Office of Housing Expediter: $15,172,100—a cut of $5,327,900.

5. Office of Defense Transportation: $340,000—a cut of $105,-000. The ODT goes out of existence next Feb. 28 unless Congress continues it.

6. War Assets administration: $50,000,000—a cut of $56,912,000. The committee recommended that the WAA be abolished Aug. 31, and that the budget bureau supervise the $50,000,000 and look after the distribution of records and property now belonging to the WAA.

The $4,225,000,000 in WAA inventories—war surpluses not yet disposed of—would be turned over to other agencies this way: To the Reconstruction Finance corporation, $2,685,000,000 in real property; to the Air Force, $873,000,000 in aircraft and parts; to the Bureau of Federal Supply, $667,000,000 in miscellaneous personal property.

The $5,795,048,931 in cash in the full bill was $504,570,069 below budget estimates, a cut of about eight per cent.

It boosted to an estimated total of $33,500,000,000 the amount recommended by the committee this year on the basis of presidential money requests of approximately $35,500,000,000. Some of the House-made cuts already have been restored by the Senate, but few of the 19 money bills sent to the House floor since January have reached the president.

301 'Shavetails' Get Commissions

WEST POINT—(INS)—Gold bars glittered today on the collars of 301 new "shavetails"—commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army by Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Unlike wartime and pre-World War II years, the newly-graduated officers this year have scores of combat veterans in their ranks. All the new lieutenants were awarded bachelor of science degrees.

Senate Working On Draft

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON. — (AP) The Senate voted today to let the army enlist 25,000 aliens.

★

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate buckled down today to another extra-hours grind which Republican leaders hope will bring final action on a limited draft revival.

The House has a similar bill it plans to take up once the Senate passes its measure.

Encouraged by the fact the chamber was able to dispose of seven controversial civil rights amendments in yesterday's 11-hour and 19 minute session, Acting Majority Leader Wherry of Nebraska said he will hold the Senate into the night again.

But the chances of a passage vote before tomorrow seemed none too bright. At least seven more amendments await action, including one by Senator Russell (D-Ga.) which also touches on the race issue.

The Senate wrote in one modified civil rights amendment last night. It voted 37 to 35 to outlaw the poll tax as a requirement for voting in federal elections so far as members of the armed services are concerned.

Southern Democrats talked for several hours against this proposal by Senator Langer (R-SD) but permitted it to come to a vote.

LANGER RAPS TAFT

Support of the Langer amendment by Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP policy committee and a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, brought a charge by Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) that the Republicans violated a "general agreement."

Taft reported that he knew of no such agreement.

The Senate's first order of business today was an amendment by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) to permit up to 50,000 aliens to enlist for service in the army outside the United States and its territories.

Also on tap were amendments:

1. By Russell, to require race segregation of all enlisted men if they request service and quarters only with men of their own race.

2. By Senator Capehart (R-Ind.), to require that the President start any actual drafting, but only after a 90-day delay. The bill being considered by the Senate would make registration and induction effective as soon as the bill became law. A provision similar to Capehart's is in the pending House measure.

3. By Morse, to (A) cut the time limit for reviving the draft from five years to two, (B) to cut the period for which men can be inducted from 24 months to 12 months, (C) to place osteopaths on the same basis in the armed services as doctors and dentists, and (D) set up a civilian commission of three members to handle the problem of conscientious objectors.

Iowa Voters Reject Two

DES MOINES—(AP)—Iowa's Republican governor and one of the three GOP congressmen who had contests were unseated in the primary election yesterday.

Gov. Robert D. Blue, seeking his third consecutive term, and Rep. John W. Gwynne, of the third congressional district, were the surprise losers.

State Rep. William S. Beardsley, druggist-farmer from New Virginia, Ia. making his first try for a statewide office, led Blue from the first returns. Blue conceded defeat when only half of the state's 2,469 precincts had reported.

Unofficial returns from 2,174 precincts gave Beardsley 168,482 and Blue 109,761.

Gwynne's conqueror was H. R. Gross, a Waterloo radio newscaster until he resigned upon entering the race. Gwynne, dean of Iowa's congressional delegation, was seeking his eighth term in the House.

Returns from 274 of the district's 313 precincts gave Gross 20,743 and Gwynne 16,758.

AMONG THE 99—Ninety-nine boys turned out Monday for the first of the YMCA's "learn-to-swim" classes and 58 of them were in the 8-to-10 year old group that included the youngsters shown here in "water acquaintance" instruction. Left to right: Jim Kibler, instructor; Billy Radler, Roger Tschappat, Billy Kunert and Billy Cunningham. John Watkins, chief instructor, is the man at the side of the pool. The 10-to-12 group numbered 24, the 12-to-14 attracted nine and the 14-to-16 group eight.—(News-Journal photo)

Foes Weigh Truce Plan

Arab Troops Near Tel Aviv

(By Associated Press)

Arab troops fought within eight miles of Tel Aviv in Israeli territory today, while politicians weighed the 50-50 chance for a truce plan being studied by both sides in the Palestine war.

Russia finally made her move to get both feet into the Palestine act. Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said Russia wants to send her own military observers to Palestine. The United States was upset.

Russian troops, whether observers or fighters, were exactly what the United States does not want in Palestine. The Russians often refuse to leave when time runs out. Recent cases in point have been Northern Iran, Manchuria and Denmark's Bornholm island.

The Arabs promised their reply tomorrow to Count Folke Bernadotte's Palestine truce proposal. The U. N. mediator was said to have devised a scheme which would give neither Israel nor the seven warring Arab countries a military advantage during the four-week armistice and arms embargo. Neutral observers in Cairo said the chance of both sides accepting is 50-50.

Bernadotte has kept his plan secret.

Jury Hears Holdup Case

Donald Devere Bowman, 24, of Columbus, went on trial today in common pleas court on a charge of robbing the Wade and Roberts restaurant at Orchard Park last April 5.

Wallace R. Black, 29, Cleveland, held in the Richland county jail on a similar charge, will go on trial Thursday.

Most of the morning was spent in charging the jury. Today's case was the first for the May term of the petit jury.

Black and Bowman were arrested in Mt. Vernon 20 minutes after they allegedly took $248 from the restaurant at the point of a gun. Proprietors said patrons were forced into a back room.

2 Electrical Firms Offer Pay Plans

Wage Boost Offers Studied By Workers

(By Associated Press)

Employes of two major electrical firms today were studying wage increase proposals.

At Pittsburgh, the "uniform security package" which the Westinghouse Electric corporation recently offered its employes was up for discussion as the firm and the CIO United Electrical Workers resumed negotiations.

The talks were the first since April 22, after the corporation had notified its employes that no wage increase could be granted.

The "security package," which would provide life, sickness, accident and hospitalization insurances and pensions, was submitted by letter June 1 to the firm's 106,000 employes, including about 7,500 in Mansfield. The union, representing about 77,-000 production workers, 5,000 of them in Mansfield, and other unions holding contracts had not been formally presented with the plan.

The union is demanding a "substantial" increase. The corporation announced it could not meet any wage increase because of a desire to prevent inflationary tendencies.

8 PER CENT OFFERED

The General Electric company offered an eight per cent wage increase to an estimated 125,000 workers in GE plants throughout the country.

The company said the offer would amount to an increase of nine cents to over 15 cents an hour."

It was made to negotiators for the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) during negotiations which have been under way since March 2 in New York.

Union negotiators recessed until mid-afternoon to consider the offer. The union asked when the increase would be effective, and the company replied "when accepted."

Last week the union proposed that the company increase wages 11 cents an hour, and make the increase adjustable to the movement of the cost of living index of the U.S Department of Labor.

An alternate union proposal asked for an increase of 13 cents an hour, with no automatic adjustment.

Czechs Will Fill Vacancy

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia —(AP)—Czechoslovakia's communist-bossed parliament will elect a new president next Monday to succeed Eduard Benes, resigned.

Communist Premier Klement Gottwald is regarded as the leading candidate for the job, with Antonin Zapotocky, deputy premier and trades union head, then succeeding Gottwald was premier.

There was talk, however, that Gottwald might wish to remain premier, a post he has held since July 3, 1946. In that case Czenek Nejedly, 70, the education minister, or Zdenek Fierlinger, the minister of industry, were given the best chance for the presidency.

Benes, Czechoslovakia's second president, quit yesterday, after serving 11 years, rather than sign a new constitution drawn up by the communist regime which captured the nation last February.

Emperor Has His Pay Cut

TOKYO — (INS) — Emperor Hirohito is going to take a pay cut. It will be to the tune of 28 million yen.

That became apparent today when the committee framing Japan's new budget in the Diet (Parliament) allowed only 58 million yen for Hirohito's imperial household expenses in the coming fiscal year.

The current year's appropriation for the imperial setup was 86 million yen.

Union Services Planned for Summer

Stoneburner Heads County Pastors

Rev. Charles W. Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist church, was elected president of the Richland County Ministerial association last night at the annual dinner meeting held in the First Methodist church.

Stoneburner

Rev. Stoneburner will replace Rev. A. F. Lindbeck, retiring president.

Other officers chosen were Rev. Willard J. Shawk, pastor of the South Main Street Evangelical and United Brethren church as vice-president; and Rev. John Genzel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, secretary and treasurer.

Other business of the meeting was the unanimous approval by attending pastors of the resumption of outdoor Sunday evening union services.

Appointed to plan the services were Rev. David N. Roller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Matthew Madden, pastor of the First Congregational church; Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell, pastor of the First English Lutheran church; Rev. Shawk and Rev. Stoneburner.

Forty ministers and their wives were present at the dinner which was served by the Mrs. John Cookman circle of the First Methodist church.

Planned by Rev. Shawk and Rev. John C. Melchert, pastor of the St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, the program included group singing, led by Rev. and Mrs. Melchert a piano solo by Rev. Madden; a violin solo by Jane Ann Stoneburner and a piano solo by James Melchert.

Time Issue Vote Set Thursday

Special Council Meeting Called

The 1948 fast time issue in Mansfield probably will be settled Thursday night.

Councilman Harry Hollingsworth, chairman of council's daylight saving time committee, said a special meeting of council has been called for Thursday for a final vote on the much-discussed question.

Whether the measure will pass is still a matter of conjecture. Observers who reported last week that five of the nine councilmen favored putting the city on fast time said today that they didn't know how the vote would go Thursday.

If the measure should pass, daylight saving time would be put into effect when, and if, Mayor Roy W. Vaughn signs the measure into law. Hollingsworth said he would contact the mayor if the measure is passed to arrange to have the bill signed at a time that would make the setting of clocks ahead the most convenient.

DECLINES COMMENT

Mayor Vaughn declined to say whether he would sign the measure. If he vetoes it, it would take a two-thirds vote of council to override the veto.

Thursday night's vote will be the second taken on the question within three months. It was defeated March 22 by a vote of 6 to 3. The question was brought up again because the majority of cities in the area north and east of Mansfield went on fast time and because business operations here were hampered due to the difference in time, Hollingsworth said.

Regardless of council's action Thursday, the measure will be on the November ballot. Hollingsworth's committee is circulating initiative referendum petitions to have the issue placed before Mansfield voters.

Rail Mishap Injures Five

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Five passengers of a Pennsylvania railroad sleeping car were injured — two seriously—in a freak accident in Union station here last night.

The victims were among 17 passengers trapped in the sleeping car of the New York-bound Spirit of St. Louis when two cars were uncoupled and smashed into the engine of the Metropolitan limited.

The second train was waiting to pull into the station. None of its passengers was injured.

The impact of the crash sprung the doors of the pullman, trapping the 17 passengers in their sleeping compartments of the Spirit of St. Louis.

Injured seriously were E. D. Johnson, 45, of Jennings, Mo., and Charles W. Donker, Baltimore, Md.

Truman Goes Into Montana

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL—(UP)—President Truman, assured of the "100 per cent" support of Idaho's 12 delegates to the Democratic National convention, headed into Montana today where party criticism of his tour threatened to mar his appearance at Butte tonight.

The criticism stemmed from Mr. Truman's refusal to permit local Democratic leaders to ride through their state on his special train, a traditional procedure with presidential candidates.

The President's stand already has alienated the chairman of the Nebraska delegation to the national convention. And yesterday, Lester H. Loble, Montana Democratic chairman, joined in the criticism of Mr. Truman's conduct on his western tour.

Spies Executed

PARIS —(AP)— Genevieve Danelle, gestapo spy, was executed today. She was the first woman to face a firing squad in liberated France. An accomplice, Roger Calame, was executed with her.

Woman Asks $1,000 for Dog Bite

Louise A. Ackerman, Ontario, thinks a dog bite is worth $1,-000.

She filed suit in municipal court today against Lee M. Paramore jr., 786 Woodland road, alleging that Paramore's dog bit her on the leg on April 26, 1947, causing her "excruciating pain of mind and body and a severe shock of her nervous system."

She asserts the dog was "negligently allowed to go at large" and that the dog bite caused her to be ill for three weeks. She also claims to have suffered permanent impairment of the use of her leg, adding that she believes she will need medical attention for some time to come.

Coal Talks Facing New Breakdown

Lewis 'Suggestions' Hit By Operators

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Negotiations for a new soft coal wage contract faced a new breakdown threat today, just 24 hours after they were resumed with the help of a court order against John L. Lewis.

The talks were scheduled to continue this afternoon but industry quarters said they might collapse if the United Mine Workers president insists on pressing the two "suggestions" he advanced at yesterday's session.

Lewis, who agreed to resume the negotiations in compliance with federal court order, asked that his suggestions be met before actual discussions begin for a new contract to replace the one expiring June 30.

Industry spokesmen revealed that Lewis demanded the coal operators assume responsibility for about $14,000,000 in relief disability and death benefits already promised by the trustees of the 1946 health and welfare fund. He told the operators these payments have been committed but that the 1946 fund does not have money to meet them.

In addition, Lewis reportedly said his union had no intention of talking about a new contract unless or until the mine owners agree to pay $100 a month pensions to all miners 62 and over who retired after May 27, 1946.

These payments would be made from the multi-million dollar 1947 welfare and retirement fund under a plan approved by Lewis and Sen. Styles Bridges, (R-N H), "neutral" trustee of the fund.

Wife 'Buyer' Reveals He's Already Wed

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—(UP)—Blonde Dorothy Lawlor's search for a husband (and $10,000) ran into complications today when the man she chose said he was still married.

The 28-year-old hatcheck girl from Hempstead, N. Y., flew here from New York City yesterday to meet Dan Wicker, a Daytona Beach tavern owner who answered her advertisement and bid $13,000 for her hand.

"That's right," Wicker said when asked if he was still married. "But that's something I don't want to talk about right now. It makes me mad every time I think about it."

He declined to elaborate or say where his wife was. Mrs. Lawlor had no comment. However, she admitted that Wicker hadn't said anything about the $13,000 he had promised her.

City Hit By Rain, Hail

A brisk but brief rain and hail storm struck the city shortly after noon today, but the storm did more good than damage.

The rainfall, added to the half inch which fell over the week end, definitely ended the spring drought in the immediate Mansfield area.

The weatherman said skies probably would clear late today and there won't be any more rain until Friday. Sunny and mild weather was forecast for tomorrow.

"Temperatures will average somewhat below normal for the period. Cool Wednesday; warmer Thursday and Friday. Precipitation Friday and Saturday will total about three-quarters of an inch in the north and about one-half inch in the south section."

Extension Voted By Committee

Action Eases House Revision

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate finance committee voted 8 to 5 today to extend the foreign trade agreements act one year with less drastic revision than the House approved.

The committee approved the bill after adopting, 7 to 6, a compromise amendment proposed by Republican Senators Vanbenberg (Mich) and Millikin (Colo).

Under this amendment, the President would have to notify Congress within 30 days if he ignores recommendations of the tariff commission in making trade agreements.

A House provision, which the committee threw out, would have allowed Congress to veto tariff rates approved by the President in disregarding tariff commission recommendations.

Approval of the Millikin-Vandenberg amendment was on strict party lines, with seven Republicans for it and six Democrats against.

Millikin declined to say how the committee members lined up later in approving the bill 8 to 5.

The present trade agreements act is scheduled to expire Saturday. The administration has asked a three-year extension without change. The House Republican majority slammed through a bill extending the act one year with the curbs on the president's tariff-making power.

OPPOSES 3-YEAR PLAN

The Republican majority on the Senate committee previously had opposed the three-year extension without change.

Before the committee session today, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) assailed the Millikin-Vandenberg proposal, saying it would leave too much power with the President.

The Democrats said it would have the effects of killing the reciprocal trade program.

Senator Taft (Ohio) said he opposed the Vandenberg-Millikin amendment—and succeeded in getting a vote put off until today—because he believes the commission's tariff-fixing recommendations should be binding upon the President.

Taft said the proposed amendment to the House bill in effect would give the President just as much authority as he has now.

The Ohioan expressed hope the Millikin - Vandenberg proposal could be modified to make it acceptable to him. But Millikin told reporters it would be difficult to "compromise the compromise."

Third Flood Crest Forms

PORTLAND, Ore. —(AP)— The Columbia and Fraser rivers fired their third flood crest down river today. Weary sandbag battalions defending battered American and Canadian dikes were reinforced for three more weeks of siege.

Scorching weather throughout the Pacific Northwest sent tons of water from fast-melting mountain snow into the two rampaging river systems. The Kootenay river, one of many feeding the Columbia, crashed through another dike in Canada. Water poured over 8,000 acres of rich farmland near Creston, B. C., 350 miles east of Vancouver.

Elsewhere in the vast flood-ravaged region of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia men and machines held the weakening levees —barely held them.

How long they would go on winning, no one knew. Nor did anyone know what to expect from the third crest. It had not built up enough so forecasters could say if it would top the first and second crests of the past week. It all depended on how long the sun blazed down on the snowpack.

Government Falls

TEHRAN, Iran—(AP)—The government of Premier Ibrahim Hakimi fell today. Of 105 members present in the Majlis (legislature) Hakimi received but 38 votes in a test of confidence.

U. S. Court Orders Hubbies to Pay

Nevada Divorce Can't Stop Alimony

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Supreme court ruled 7-2 yesterday that Nevada divorces do not permit two ex-husbands to stop making alimony payments previously ordered by New York courts under separation decrees.

Justice Douglas delivered the two decisions. Justices Frankfurter and Jackson dissented.

The ruling was given on appeals by Joseph Estin and Louis Kreiger from findings by the New York state court of appeals. The state court said they owed back alimony to their former wives, despite the Nevada divorce decrees.

Upholding the New York court, Douglas said:

"The fact that marital capacity was changed does not mean that every other legal incident of the marriage was necessarily affected."

CAN'T CHALLENGE

In another decision involving legality of a divorce, the Supreme Court ruled that a Florida divorce cannot be challenged in other states when both the husband and wife were present at the divorce court and took part in the proceedings.

Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson delivered the 7-to-2 decision. Justices Felix Frankfurter and Frank Murphy dissented.

The ruling reversed the Massachusetts supreme court, which had set aside the divorce of Margaret and Edward Sherrer. The couple was divorced at St. Petersburg in November, 1944.

Vinson said the Massachusetts action violated the constitutional mandate that every state must give "full faith and credit" to actions of other states.

U. S. Steel Told to Buy Rival Firm

Supreme Court Says Purchase Within Law

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Supreme court ruled yesterday that U. S. Steel's proposed purchase of Consolidated Steel corporation for $8,250,000 would not violate the anti-trust laws.

The 5-to-4 decision affirmed a ruling by the federal district court at Wilmington, Del., last November, dismissing the government complaint.

Consolidated owns six fabricating steel plants in California, one in Texas and one in Arizona. It is the largest west coast consumer of U. S. Steel's rolled steel products.

U. S. Steel's president, Benjamin Fairless, said the sole purpose of buying the Consolidated properties was to provide an outlet for the steel production of the big steel plant at Geneva, Utah. U. S. Steel built the Geneva plant under government contract during the war and bought it from the government as a surplus property afterward.

Audience to Get First-Hand Story of Life In Palestine

The Ontario Community church will sponsor a lecture and sound movies on "Life in War-Torn Palestine" Friday at 8 p. m.

The talk will be given by Walter J. Field, lecturer, English educator and missionary from Palestine. The film, entitled, "The Holy Land Passing Parade," starts with scenes at Haifa and covers the entire country from Dan to Beersheba.

Field served with the British army during the war in the middle east and at its close returned to Palestine as a missionary. A native of England, Field has spent the past 12 years in the middle-east.

One of the most interested spectators at the talk and movies will be Mrs. Ralph E. Baney of Galion, whose husband, Rev. Baney is associated with Field in Palestine. While Mrs. Baney visits relatives in Galion, Rev. Baney is lecturing in other parts of the country.

There is no admission charge for the lecture, but a free-will offering will be taken for Christian Missions in the Holy Land.

Grain Rules Hearing Set

A public hearing in Toledo June 23 on proposed amendments to the official grain standards for soybeans has been announced by the Richland county Triple-A office.

The hearing is scheduled for 2:30 p. m., on the third floor of the Produce Exchange building, St. Clair and Madison avenues.

The hearing is in response to requests from dealers and producers to (1) combine dockage with foreign material and retain the present maximum limits for foreign material or increase them one per cent in each grade; (2) reduce the maximum limits for moisture one or two per cent in each grade, and (3) increase the maximum limits for splits five per cent in each of the numerical grades.

Interested persons may submit their views orally or in writing at the hearing, or in writing to the Director, Grain Branch, Production and Marketing administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than July 10.

Giants Take First Place In National

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK—(UP)—According to that well-known author, Leo Durocher, who also manages the Brooklyn Dodgers, "nice guys finish last," but Zach Taylor and his battling Browns from St. Louis were trying hard today to prove he is wrong.

Taylor's band of "new look" ball players was consigned to the American league cellar long before the season began, and it is possible they may yet finish there, which will prove that Durocher is a prophet as well as an editorial whiz.

But they aren't going to land at the bottom if hustle, a grand team spirit and some pretty good all-around ball playing will keep them higher. It is hard to get too enthusiastic about a club which has just ended a six-game losing streak, but even in defeat the Brownies didn't beat themselves.

NED GARVER WINS

Which was precisely what occurred yesterday as 23-year-old Ned Garver, a lad from Ney, O., kept his pitching wits about him and earned a hard-fought, 5 to 3, victory over the Yankees. He was tagged for 11 hits including home runs by Johnny Lindell and Phil Rizzuto, but when trouble threatened he bore down, leaving 11 Yankees stranded on base. Paul Lehner who drove in two runs with a homer and a scoring fly led the 12-hit St. Louis attack.

The Senators showed that they have got Bob Gillespie's number, but good. They belted him out of the box last night for the second time in three days as they licked the White Sox, 7 to 1.

CUBS LOSE AGAIN

The Braves with Jim Russell putting on a personal hitting spree, defeated the Cubs, 9 to 5, at Chicago for their second straight victory there. It was Chicago's sixth straight loss.

The Giants grabbed first place once again, thanks to a 9 to 5 victory over the Pirates while the Cardinals were losing to Philadelphia, 5 to 1. Bobby Thomson was the big gun of the Giant 13-hit barrage, driving in four runs with a single, a triple and a homer.

Homers told the story in the Card defeat. Dick Sisler's two with a man on each time, gave the Phils the difference in the ball game. Stan Musial's circuiter in the fourth spoiled the shutout for Dutch Leonard.

Cleveland-Philadelphia and Detroit-Boston were rained out.

CHICAGO—Freddie Dawson, 139, Chicago, stopped Willie Cheatum, 138, Newark, N. J., 10.

SAN FRANCISCO—Pat Valentino, San Francisco, and Joey Maxim, Cleveland, heavyweights, drew, 10.

MILWAUKEE—Ray Miller, 159, Kansas City, outpointed Eddie O'Neill, 157, Detroit, 10. Alvin Jordan, 137, Milwaukee, knocked out Dave Marsh, 132, Akron, O., in 14 seconds of the first round of a scheduled eight. Troy Luckett, 133¾, Milwaukee, outpointed Red Grant, 132, Toledo, 4.

Signs for Fight

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — Lightweight champion Ike Williams signed today to defend his crown July 12 in Philadelphia against former champion Beau Jack of New York. Jack, one-time Georgia shoeshine boy, will be seeking his third lightweight crown in the 15-round title bout.

Gorman-Rupp Softballers Battle Akron Firestones

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp's softball team will go after its seventh victory in eight starts at 8:30 p. m. tonight when the highly-regarded Akron Firestone team invades Gorman-Rupp's Bowman street field.

The Akron team is a member of the fast Ohio Inter-City softball league, having finished in the runner-up position in the past two years. Firestone has broken even in two league starts this season.

Bill Skidmore, a fast ball pitcher, is the standout of the Firestone mound staff, while his catcher, Jack Ozburn, is a former basketball star from Monmouth college and played for a time with Denver's great AAU cage team.

FAST MAN

Base-stealer of the squad is Third-baseman Hugh Davis, former Akron University sprint star. Paul DuCharm, second-baseman, is a former All-American basketball player from Notre Dame.

Gorman-Rupp Manager Nick Weber has not named his starting pitcher for tonight's game but will probably use either Bobby Regula or Kenny Windsor.

Thursday Gorman-Rupp goes to Willard for its only game of the week in the North Central Ohio Inter-City league.

Beginning tonight, all exhibition games at the G-R field will be nine inning affairs.

BATTING — Jimmy Russell, Braves — Blasted two home runs and two doubles and drove in five runs to lead Boston to a 9-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.
PITCHING — Dutch Leonard, Phillies — Pitched a five-hitter for Philadelphia for a 5-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. A home run by Stan Musial spoiled his shutout bid.

Psychic Peer Says Tony Zale By Kayo

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(UP)—A lot of guys brag about reading the crystal ball and what not? But it took Fearless Fraley to invade the women-sacred precincts of the gypsy tea kettle today to learn that Tony Zale will knock out Rocky Graziano for the middleweight championship tomorrow night.

That's straight from Madame Pandora, psychic peer of the pasteboards in this principality. And the madame goes even further in disclosing that it will be in either the first or the tenth round.

Don't think it was easy. It took a lot of time—and two bucks.

First off, I figured the gypsy district in the lower east side was the best bet. But hours of wandering through the tenements, questioning cops, cab drivers and newsboys failed to produce a single fortune teller. It's a lost art down there where they scratch hard for a dollar.

But the classified adds listed the "Gypsy Tea Kettle—Tea Leaves Read Gratis!" and there was Madame Pandora!

JUMPING WITH GAGS

The joint was pumping with females, and not a man in sight. But old fearless, feeling like the Black Angus in the crockery department, marched in and demanded an audition.

"You'll have to wait," said a red-haired waitress, waving around at the jammed tables where women waited, like poised sprinters, to have their tea leaves explained.

"We're always busy," she commented. "A lot of women want to know how to get a husband—or how to get rid of one."

Old fearless waited. But I'd rather fight Zale and Graziano at the same time than do it over again. Finally Pandora was ready for Fraley and we got on with it.

"What are their birthdays and complexions?" madame asked.

The answer was that Zale was a mud gutter blond born May 29, 1914, and Graziano a black-haired bruiser who made his debut June 7, 1922. Came a lot of business with a deck of unusual cards and Pandora explained:

"They both vibrate the same for both are under the sign of Gemini."

FIGHT LIKE KIN

That sounded right. They not only fight like brothers, but like twins maneuvering for a legacy.

"The sun is in Gemini," she added, "which benefits both."

With guarantees of $120,000 for Graziano and $60,000 for Zale, she was correct there.

"It's a tough fight," Pandora continued. "Jupiter opposes them and they'll have to work like hell." An understatement.

"But, according to the cards, and I've proved it three times—the light one, this Zale, will win!"

So it's Zale all the way—in Madame Pandora's cards.

And if it turns out she's right, she'll be swamped by every gambler on Broadway!

Sisler Homers Defeat Cards

(By Associated Press)

It never fails—trade away a guy and he comes back to make you rue the day.

Eddie Dyer, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is the latest to feel the wrath of a discarded player. Dyer must have had moments of regret last night when Dick Sisler, former Redbird first baseman, cracked two home runs to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 5-... victory over the Cardinals.

Sisler was traded by Dyer to the Phillies just before the opening of the season for Infielder Ralph Lapointe after he lost out as regular first baseman to Nippy Jones.

The son of baseball's immortal George Sisler not only whipped his former mates single-handedly by adding a single to his pair of round trippers and driving in four runs, but knocked the Cards right out of the National league lead.

171 Aspirants Check In for National Open

LOS ANGELES —(INS)— Practice shooting continued today as 171 aspirants to the National Open golf crown checked in with officials for America's greatest golf tournament at the tough Riviera country club in Los Angeles.

Sam Snead, the West Virginia long distance hitter, went over the course yesterday with a sharp 67—four under par—serving notice to eight former title-holders and defending champion Lew Worsham that he was in tune for Thursday's opening play.

Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., Bobby Locke, Tommy Armour, Olin Dutra, with late arrival Jimmy Demaret, who won the $10,000 Albuquerque tournament Sunday with a 20-under-par card, were taking healthy swings today at old man par.

The warming-up process ends tomorrow. It is expected that 20,000 spectators will watch the 72-hole tourney.

Joe Mayer Paces Moose Loop Golf With 34 Score

Joe Mayer, Mansfield golf pro, fired a par 34 over the Coolridge links yesterday to pace Moose league golfers. Ray Malaska, Mayer's opponent, pressed him all the way by shooting a 37. Jona Scadova also had a 37.

The Treasurers won three of four matches to maintain their league lead with 21 points. Moosehaven is second with 18 followed by the Prelates and Moosehart with 16; Jr. Governors, 15; Herders and Governors, 14; and Trustees, 5.

Tribe-Bosox Open Tonight

CLEVELAND — (INS) — The Cleveland Indians, after having their final game with the Philadelphia Athletics rained out, move to Boston today to open a three-game stand.

The tribe takes on the sox tonight, tomorrow and Thursday before shuttling over to New York for a four-game series.

Manager Lou Boudreau has decided to give Gen Bearden the call tonight to enable Feller to pitch tomorrow and be ready for Sunday's doubleheader with the Yankees. Bob Lemon will take the mound Thursday.

Even Tilts Slated In Ball Loops

Two tough contests in the Independent league and a pair of interesting tilts in the Girls' circuit are scheduled tonight beginning at 6 o'clock.

Komito's Clothes, lone remaining Independent unbeaten team, goes against Penn Auto at Johns park and Greystone Nite club meets American Legion Post 72 at North Lake park.

Last week, Penn Auto defeated the Legion, 3 to 1. The latter team tied Komito's two weeks ago. Greystone beat Sport Center, 13 to 11 while the Legion beat the same team, 3 to 0.

Ohio Sport Center, holder of a bye, will entertain the Galion Perfection Steel team at 6 p. m. at Liberty park.

BATTLE FOR LEAD

Girls' league teams will be battling for the lead and to stay out of the cellar. Undefeated Ohio Brass and Tappan Stove collide in the top contest at John Todd park while Lumbermens and Westinghouse meet at Prospect park. The latter teams will be gunning for their first wins.

Brass and Tappan are tied for first place.

Games in the Park and Church league last night were rained out.

The Park tilts have been rescheduled for Thursday at 6 p. m. Johns will meet the Gorman-Rupp juniors at the G-R park while Prospect and North Lake battle at Liberty park.

Leaders Battle Tough Teams In N-J Golf League

The most important round of play thus far is scheduled this evening in the News-Journal A golf league at Possum Run.

Blue Goose Tavern and Ideal Billiards, co-leaders of the league, will take on runnerup teams which could dethrone them with little trouble should their irons get hot.

Blue Goose will meet Orr Typewriter which is one point off the pace while Ideal faces Penn Auto, two points back with seven points.

In other fourth round matches, Smokehouse, minus its ace, Al Hager, will meet Myers Supply and Flexible Conveyor will battle PD's Bar.

Gorman-Rupp Backs Ahead

MARION—Mansfield Gorman-Rupp backed into first place in the North Central Ohio Inter-City Softball league last night when the Ashland Indians fell before Smitty's Grill here, 3-1.

The Indians had been tied with Gorman-Rupp for the loop lead but are now in a second place deadlock with Marion. Both teams have two victories and one defeat while Mansfield has won both of its tests.

Bobby Mitchell Boosts Home 6 Ascot Winners

AKRON — (INS) — Bobby Mitchell was the talk of the racing circles today after booting home six winners in the two-day-old meeting at Ascot Park in Akron.

The young jockey brought in three winners on opening day Saturday and rode three more home yesterday.

Sets Record, Books Don't Get It

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Ollie Matson, 18-year-old husky who raced 440 yards in world record prep school time of 47.1 seconds, won't get his name in any record books.

Worse, he may not get an opportunity to beat the official record of 48.2, or the new unofficial mark of 48 flat by Gene Cole of Lancaster, Ohio.

Here's why:

1—Ollie was not competing in an interscholastic meet, but in the Pacific association AAU meet, at Berkeley, Calif., Saturday.

2—He finished second. Records aren't figured on second places.

3—Ollie's time was unofficial. The official watches were stopped by the great Herb McKenley at 46 flat ..3 seconds faster than McKenley's official 46.3 mark.

Matson has completed his interscholastic track schedule, but his coach is trying hard to find a meet which would give Ollie a chance at the prep record.

Meantime, the coach, Louis Vasquez at San Francisco's Washington high school, is prepping him for the Olympic tryouts. Matson's 47.1 was the fastest 440 this year by a U.S. runner- collegians included.

Vasquez had to trick Matson into racing the 440; Ollie didn't want to step up from the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Vasquez worked it this way: He convinced the youth he needed to train at 440 yards to build stamina. Then he had Ollie run 440 yards in a couple of mile relays. Finally, he got him into a quarter-mile race. Ollie won easily.

Then came Saturday. Ollie agreed to run for the experience. "Believing he would fall down halfway through the race, because of McKenley's pace," Vasquez said.

"He found that he was fresh and full of run at the 220 mark and actually gained three yards on the flying McKenley in the last half of the race."

In the same meet, Matson won a high school 100 yards in 9.6 seconds.

PS: Tip to coaches: Matson plans to attend San Francisco city college next year, to be coached by Grover Klemmer, ex-USC speedster who shared the world record at 46.4 until McKenley came along.

Then: Ollie plans to transfer to a larger school where track is a prime sport.

FACTS ABOUT "PILES"

Why leave town to have your piles treated, when I have treated over a thousand cases right here at home, these past 15 years.

I am trained by post-graduate work and experience to make the proper diagnosis and give the indicated treatment. Many cases go about their regular duties without loss of time.

I don't claim a "secret" method. I don't use electric needles. My reputation is your guarantee.

U. S. Court Orders Hubbies to Pay

Nevada Divorce Can't Stop Alimony

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Supreme court ruled 7-2 yesterday that Nevada divorces do not permit two ex-husbands to stop making alimony payments previously ordered by New York courts under separation decrees.

Justice Douglas delivered the two decisions. Justices Frankfurter and Jackson dissented.

The ruling was given on appeals by Joseph Estin and Louis Kreiger from findings by the New York state court of appeals. The state court said they owed back alimony to their former wives, despite the Nevada divorce decrees.

Upholding the New York court, Douglas said:

"The fact that marital capacity was changed does not mean that every other legal incident of the marriage was necessarily affected."

CAN'T CHALLENGE

In another decision involving legality of a divorce, the Supreme Court ruled that a Florida divorce cannot be challenged in other states when both the husband and wife were present at the divorce court and took part in the proceedings.

Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson delivered the 7-to-2 decision. Justices Felix Frankfurter and Frank Murphy dissented.

The ruling reversed the Massachusetts supreme court, which had set aside the divorce of Margaret and Edward Sherrer. The couple was divorced at St. Petersburg in November, 1944.

Vinson said the Massachusetts action violated the constitutional mandate that every state must give "full faith and credit" to actions of other states.

U. S. Steel Told to Buy Rival Firm

Supreme Court Says Purchase Within Law

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Supreme court ruled yesterday that U. S. Steel's proposed purchase of Consolidated Steel corporation for $8,250,000 would not violate the anti-trust laws.

The 5-to-4 decision affirmed a ruling by the federal district court at Wilmington, Del., last November, dismissing the government complaint.

Consolidated owns six fabricating steel plants in California, one in Texas and one in Arizona. It is the largest west coast consumer of U. S. Steel's rolled steel products.

U. S. Steel's president, Benjamin Fairless, said the sole purpose of buying the Consolidated properties was to provide an outlet for the steel production of the big steel plant at Geneva, Utah. U. S. Steel built the Geneva plant under government contract during the war and bought it from the government as a surplus property afterward.

Audience to Get First-Hand Story of Life In Palestine

The Ontario Community church will sponsor a lecture and sound movies on "Life in War-Torn Palestine" Friday at 8 p. m.

The talk will be given by Walter J. Field, lecturer, English educator and missionary from Palestine. The film, entitled, "The Holy Land Passing Parade," starts with scenes at Haifa and covers the entire country from Dan to Beersheba.

Field served with the British army during the war in the middle east and at its close returned to Palestine as a missionary. A native of England, Field has spent the past 12 years in the middle-east.

One of the most interested spectators at the talk and movies will be Mrs. Ralph E. Baney of Galion, whose husband, Rev. Baney is associated with Field in Palestine. While Mrs. Baney visits relatives in Galion, Rev. Baney is lecturing in other parts of the country.

There is no admission charge for the lecture, but a free-will offering will be taken for Christian Missions in the Holy Land.

Grain Rules Hearing Set

A public hearing in Toledo June 23 on proposed amendments to the official grain standards for soybeans has been announced by the Richland county Triple-A office.

The hearing is scheduled for 2:30 p. m., on the third floor of the Produce Exchange building, St. Clair and Madison avenues.

The hearing is in response to requests from dealers and producers to (1) combine dockage with foreign material and retain the present maximum limits for foreign material or increase them one per cent in each grade; (2) reduce the maximum limits for moisture one or two per cent in each grade, and (3) increase the maximum limits for splits five per cent in each of the numerical grades.

Interested persons may submit their views orally or in writing at the hearing, or in writing to the Director, Grain Branch, Production and Marketing administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than July 10.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Prof. Aron Freimann, 76, bibliographer of Hebrew literature, died Sunday. At the request of Pope Pius XI, he undertook in the 1920's to catalogue the Vatican's Hebrew manuscripts.

OHIO LIQUOR SALES

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Ohio ranked second to Pennsylvania in liquor sales volume last year among states with monopoly systems, a census bureau report showed today. Pennsylvania's sales volume was nearly $200,000,000 with Ohio and Michigan following. Thirteen other states have monopoly system.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed proposals will be received by the Director of Public Service-Safety of the City of Mansfield, Ohio, at the office of the said Director, until 12 o'clock noon, E.S.T., June 16, 1948, for the improvement of the Sanitary Sewer Department by the construction of a sanitary sewer in Dewey Avenue from Grace Street to 290 feet north of Grace Street, as per plans and specifications on file at the office of the Service-Safety Director, City Building, Mansfield, Ohio.

Bids must be made on forms furnished by the City Engineer and envelopes must be plainly marked "Bid for Dewey Avenue Sanitary Sewer."

Bids must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same and be accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank in the sum of $50.00 payable to the Director of Public Service-Safety of the City of Mansfield, Ohio, as a guaranty that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured. Should any bid be rejected such check will be forthwith returned to the bidder and should any bid be accepted such check will be returned upon proper execution and securing of the contract.

The City of Mansfield, Ohio, reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By Order of the Service-Safety Director of the City of Mansfield, Ohio.

U. S. Evening War Balance With Russia

Time Growing Short for Reds

By WALTER LIPPMANN

WITH American rearmament assured by decisive majorities in Congress, a new phase in our relations with the Soviet Union is beginning. The critical question is how the Kremlin will react to the prospect with which, as a direct consequence of the coup d'etat in Czechoslovakia, it is now confronted.

The meaning of what has happened here between March and June must be plain—there are many indications that it is plain—to Stalin and the Russian general staff, even if it is not yet fully understood by all the members of the Politburo.

As of March this country was already capable of striking severe blows inside the Soviet Union. But it had not mobilized the reserves it has in its stockpiles, nor taken the measures to replenish and enlarge its reserves for a sustained and increasingly severe assault. Measures have now been adopted, assuming as we may that Congress also will vote the draft, which mean that month by month the American striking force will grow more powerful.

★

Thus month by month the balance of military power will become more and more unfavorable to the Soviet Union. For while the Red Army is still by all odds the most powerful military force in the Eurasian continent, it cannot advance anywhere without provoking a war with the United States.

For such a war the time required by this country to mobilize for severe reprisals is being reduced, the power to continue and intensify the reprisals is being increased.

Therefore, time being against them, if the rulers of Russia intend to react to the situation by military measures, they will not wait until American mobilization and rearmament are completed. All military power is relative, and in the present situation the Red Army as an instrument for the conquest or domination of Europe is deteriorating. It is still capable of overrunning the near-by countries of western Europe and the Middle East. But the cost of such an adventure is certain, is known, and is prohibitive. For the Red Army is incapable of defending Russian territory against destructive attack, and it is altogether impotent for a serious attack against the continental United States.

For these reasons, which I believe are controlling and compelling, it is in the highest degree probable that the so-called "peace offensive" is not mere propaganda, that is to say, exclusively an attempt to confuse and divert public opinion in Europe and America.

No doubt the Kremlin would be delighted if it could cause us to suspend rearmament and lose interest in the European Recovery Program. But Stalin is no fool, and never has been, and however twisted and distorted may be the political intelligence he receives, the adoption of the American military program is a fact which he and his military advisers are bound to understand.

It is, therefore, highly probable that the peace offensive is primarily an attempt to bargain—to give up as little as possible and to get in return as much as possible. In all bargaining of this kind there is, of course, insincerity, bluff, and propaganda. A man who offers a hundred dollars in a horse trade, hoping to get the horse for a hundred and twenty-five, though he is prepared to give a hundred and fifty, is no doubt insincere, is bluffing, is conducting propaganda. But if he really wants the horse, he is not merely a propagandist; he is a horse trader.

Now in my view the real question is not whether the peace offensive is propaganda. It is whether the Kremlin has decided that it must have peace or that it must risk a war.

The answer to that question will not be found by studying the writings of Marx, Lenin and Stalin, or by elaborating theories about the Soviet mentality. The answer will be given objectively by events which will take place within the next few months, almost certainly within the next year.

If for any reason the Soviets do not want to negotiate a peace settlement, they will take overt military action in the fairly near future to counteract the American military program. If they do not act, if the Red Army continues to stand still while American military power mounts, then it will mean that the Kremlin has decided to negotiate a modus vivendi, making the best bargain it can get.

U. S. Will Lift Atomic Plant Anti-Strike Injunction

Labor Law Delays Fail To End Fuss

Walkout Threat Still Remains

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The justice department took steps today toward dismissal of the injunction against a strike of 900 workers at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic plant.

Although the strike threat still remains, the government has no alternative under the Taft-Hartley act but to seek an end to the court order which has prevented a walkout at the plant since March.

All "emergency" provisions of the act have now been invoked. The last step was a government-sponsored poll in which the workers rejected, 771 to 26, the 10-cents an hour wage boost offered by the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals corporation, operator of the Oak Ridge plant.

The AFL Atomic Trades council, which represents the workers, is demanding a 26-cents an hour boost.

Advised of the outcome of the poll, the National Labor Relations board yesterday turned the case over to the justice department.

Under the law the department now will move for dismissal of the anti-strike injunction. The motion is expected to be filed in the U. S. district court at Knoxville, Tenn., in a day or two.

While dismissal of the injunction would leave the workers free to strike, negotiations in the dispute have been resumed and the operators said things look "very hopeful" for a settlement.

Grange Plants Corn to Aid Building Fund

MT. GILEAD—Members of the Canaan Grange have planted 56 acres of crops on share rent to help raise funds to build a new Grange hall at Denmark.

Nearly 25 tractors were at work at the Glenn Earley farm south of Mt. Gilead last week planting the 15 acres of corn and 41 acres of soybeans.

Those helping with the work were: Floyd Pangborn, Wilbur Ault, Carlos Snyder, Dick Williams, Homer Sayers, Cecil Morton, Blaine Jeffries, Maurice Anthony, Bill Bennett, Francis Bolinger, Charles Roach, John Heifley, Virgil Bailey, Edwin Loffer, Elmer Hipsher, Raymond Bush, Slim Nance, Fred Zentler, Clyde Miller, Pete Williams, George Levering, Glenn Earley.

Scott Belt, Vivian Belt, Ethel Hipsher, Ruth Levering, Donna Bader, Kay Williams, Minnie Earley, Sarah Payne, Marian Bennett, Catherine Nance, Glenna Bollinger, Jesse Geyer, Lowell Bader, Russel Gilson and Donna Ruth Ault.

200 Attend Berry Festival

Approximately 200 members of the Richland County Scottish Rite association attended their second annual strawberry festival last night in the North Lake park pavilion.

The members ate two bushels of strawberries and heard Robert Pamphrey of the FBI give a short talk on the Federal Bureau of Investigation's organization and operation. Harry Henness, president, officiated at the strawberry shortcake feast and Ray Jenkins led the members in group singing.

Plans are being arranged for the annual family picnic Aug. 4.

Young Demo Club To Pick Delegates

Court Upholds Overtime Pay

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Overtime pay claims of New York longshoremen yesterday were upheld 5-3 by the Supreme court.

The majority denied that the claims amount to "overtime on overtime." It described them rather as overtime on premium pay for work at inconvenient hours.

The U. S. District court in New York must determine the method of computation of the pay.

Justice Reed delivered a 10,500-word opinion explaining the majority's view. Justice Frankfurter wrote a 6,500 word dissent in which Justices Jackson and Burton agreed. Justice Douglas took no part.

The Justice department, opposing the longshoremen's claims, said the government, as wartime operator of all ships, faced a huge liability if "overtime on overtime" back pay claims were upheld.

Steels, Motors, Oils Lead In Upward Move By Market

NEW YORK—(AP)—Steels, motors and oils were in front of a generally higher stock market today.

Trading activity was moderately heavy at the opening but when overnight orders were cleared, volume dwindled appreciably as buyers and sellers alike attempted to gauge the next phase of the market's position.

Oil stocks, the firmest pillar in the market's foundation in recent weeks, continued to attract a considerable amount of buying on top of reports from Texas and other producing areas that a new increase in the price of crude was being discussed.

Meet Today On Crusade Plans

Civic, religious, charitable and municipal officials were to meet today at 4 p. m. in Mayor Roy W. Vaughn's office to map plans for a "Crusade for Children" campaign to be launched in the city.

The drive will seek voluntary contributions for the relief and rehabilitation of children of war-torn nations. The campaign is sponsored by the United Nations.

City Gets Offers On Equipment

Bids On Waterworks Needs Studied

City officials and the consulting engineers on the Clear Fork waterworks project this afternoon were analyzing 10 bids opened at noon today offering to supply the city with pumps and electrical equipment for the Clear Fork high lift pumping station.

Not only must the experts study the bids in relation to price and technical specifications, but they must examine them in the light of a recent state ruling prohibiting cities from entering into contracts with "escalator" clauses, or clauses which stipulate that bid prices are subject to increase at the time of billing or delivery.

Three bids were received to supply the city with three transformers, transformer equipment and switchboard equipment. The General Electric company, the Westinghouse Electric corporation and the Dravo corporation, all of Cleveland, bid on the equipment.

The low bidder on these items is not known and the Dravo company bid on the three items and on the pump and submitted a figure only for the total.

The General Electric and Dravo bids were firm (did not contain escalator clause) but the Westinghouse bid contained a clause.

EIGHT OFFER BIDS

Eight firms bid to supply the city with main pumps, booster pumps and to test them. Four of the bids contained an escalator clause which may disqualify them.

Firms offering bids were the Allis - Chalmers Manufacturing company, West Allis, Wis.; the Peerless Pump division of the Food Machinery Corporation, Quincy, Ill.; Fairbanks, Morse and company, Cleveland; Ingersoll-Rand company, New York, N. Y.; Warren Steam Pump company, Warren, Mass.; Dravo corporation, Cleveland; the Worthington pump Machinery corporation, Cleveland, and the B. W. Rogers company, Akron.

The earliest delivery date specified for the transformers was March 14, 1949, which means that the new equipment can't be installed in the high-lift pumping station before that date.

Carl Walker, of the Jennings-Lawrence Engineering corporation, said, however, that two pumps and a bank of transformers from the Maxwell station will be moved into the high-lift station when it is completed and that the new pump station will be in operation "long before" the new equipment arrives in Mansfield.

Committee Completes Plans For Shelby CE Convention

SHELBY — The state committee for the Christian Endeavor convention met Sunday afternoon in Shelby at the Evangelical and Reformed church and a check-up was completed on the detailed plans for the coming convention in Shelby June 24 to 27. Reports from the state office at Columbus showed registrations were ahead of last year's figures.

Plans were completed for a banquet in the Lutheran church Friday evening and for a parade to be held Saturday evening.

A special event will be the sight-seeing tour to include the Monican State Forest and other points of interest in the county.

At the close of the Thursday and Friday evening sessions, social events will take place with party games played under the direction of Rev. John MacDonald of Shenandoah. At the close of Saturday's meeting, there will be an outdoor sing in Shelby Central park. The local Boy Scouts will assist as pages, sources of information and guides.

Housing plans are under the direction of Miss Hazel Mitchell, president of the Richland County Christian Endeavor Union.

John Morrison, former president of the State Christian Endeavor Union, is chairman of the state committee and presided at the meeting.

It has been 50 years since the thirteenth state convention was held in Richland county.

4 Boys Warned In Theft Case

Four youths, age 10, 11, 12 and 13, were placed on six weeks probation today by Probate Judge Stuart H. Cramer. They admitted the theft of a gun and hatchet valued at $35 from a building on West Sixth street May 24.

The youths were warned and ordered to report to the court each Saturday morning for the next six weeks.

An 11-year-old youth, accused of stealing a sheath knife valued at $2.50 from a Mulberry street store, was placed on probation.

Mansfield Firm Bids On Project

The Mansfield Asphalt Paving company today was listed as the tentative low bidder on resurfacing of 1.86 miles of U. S. Route 42 northeast of Mansfield.

The Mansfield firm's bid was $53,616. Cost of the project had been estimated at $53,700. Bids were opened by the state highway department in Columbus.

Name Acting Postmaster

GALION — J. Ben Romine, 39, of 614 South street, has been named acting postmaster in Galion to succeed W. V. Goshorn whose retirement is slated for June 30, the end of the postal fiscal year.

Graduated from Galion high school in 1926, Romine became associated with the Galion Iron Works & Manufacturing company Jan. 1, 1927 and served in the purchasing department until January, 1948. Recently, he has been employed at Andrews dairy.

An active Democrat, Romine served one term on city council from 1938 to 1940, when he was elected clerk of that body. He served in this position for eight years, until January of this year. He is a member of the Democratic county central committee and recently elected vice president of the Crawford county Young Democratic club.

'Biggest Political Show On Earth'

All Set to Move In On Philadelphia

By JOHN F. SEMBOWER
Central Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C —Soothsayers of the two major political parties—those keen observers who make it their business to know in advance which way most of the delegates will jump in the national conventions in Philadelphia, have virtually closed the "spring book" on the field of candidates.

Earl Warren

They have picked their favorites and the dark horses for the presidential nominations to be made by the Republicans in their sessions beginning June 21 and Democrats starting July 12.

At this moment they do not see the likelihood of a re-enactment this summer in the City of Brotherly Love of such a coup as Wendell Willkie's at the GOP conclave in 1940 in the very same town, or a wild stampede such as the one to William Jennings Bryan in the 1896 Democratic convention after his "cross of gold" oration.

A good stiff battle, such as that brewing between the so-called "big three" in the GOP, New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft, and Harold E. Stassen, or a sharp revolt such as the threatened Dixie rebellion against Harry E. Truman, is the best bet for excitement.

Harold E. Stassen

The behind-scenes forecasts here among the forces mobilizing to move in on Philadelphia do not discount the possibility of a dark horse choice for the GOP.

Rated as the most likely dark horses are Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Gen Douglas MacArthur, California's Gov. Earl Warren and House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, jr., all of whom have active delegate support with their names certain to be formally presented.

UPSETS RECALLED

A three-way scramble among the leaders has set up many a dark-horse movement, as when Clark, Hammond and Underwood locked horns in the Democratic conventions in 1912 and Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey triumphed as an outsider on the 49th ballot.

The famous Democratic deadlock between Al Smith and William G. McAdoo in 1920 went more than a hundred roll calls before John W. Davis emerged as perhaps the darkest dark horse in history.

The most exciting possibility at this stage of the buildup for the Democratic convention, of course, is the threatened revolt of the "solid South," led by Alabama's insurgent delegates who are pledged not to support President Truman, the only openly avowed candidate at present with Eisenhower still being mentioned and some rumblings on behalf of Supreme Court Justice Douglas.

OTHERS BEATEN

In spite of the fact that there seems to be general belief that an incumbent President is certain of renomination by his party, history provides many examples to the contrary, particularly when a President took office from the Vice-Presidency, as did Truman.

Millard Fillmore became President upon the death of Zachary Taylor, but could not win the Whig nomination in 1852, Gen. Winfield Scott being picked.

President Buchanan could not stave off Stephen A. Douglas in 1860, and the latter was beaten by Lincoln in the election President Johnson was dropped like a hot cake by the Republicans after he served out Lincoln's unexpired term, and General Grant was nominated.

Chester A. Arthur, who turned out to be a surprisingly good President as Garfield's successor after the latter's assassination, was beaten in the 1884 Republican convention by James G. Blaine. President Polk did not even seek renomination after serving his lone term, and retired from the White House in 1849. He was only 54, but died in the next year.

VIGOROUS RIVALS

Truman adherents point out, however, that in each instance when an incumbent President has failed to achieve nomination, he has faced a vigorous and open aspirant for his post from within his own party, a parallel that is lacking with the convention only weeks away.

Thomas E. Dewey

Philadelphia, host to both meeting this year, is an experienced host, having entertained three former GOP conclaves and a Democratic convention previously.

However, it trails Chicago as a favorite site, 11 GOP conventions having been held there and five Democratic gatherings. From 1832-52, the Democrats always met in Baltimore, and from 1902-20, the Republicans always convened in Chicago.

Philadelphia aims to stage the conventions in great style this year, and the whole nation will judge its efforts. The 18-year-old Municipal Auditorium is being completely redone at a cost of $550,000.

Among the improvements is an ingenious public address system with amplifying horns running on tracks along the ceiling to give better coverage for the radio and the audience in the hall. And powerful 1,500-watt overhead lamps will give 50 per cent more illumination, facilitating the first televising of a national convention.

Dewey Invites Ohio's GOP Delegates to Visit Him

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Members of the Ohio delegation to the Republican national convention have received letters from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, a presidential candidate, congratulating them "most heartily" on their election as delegates and inviting them to visit him in Albany.

Forty-four of the Ohio delegates are pledged to Sen. Robert A. Taft for president; nine to former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

The New York governor, in a letter written May 28, told the delegates:

"If you are going to be near Albany before the convention, do let me know so that we can have a visit.

"In any event, I'm looking forward with great pleasure to seeing you at Philadelphia."

It was signed off with "warm regards."

Republican state headquarters said that Senator Taft previously had written to the Ohio delegates, congratulating them on their selection.

Gov. Warren On Long Trip

SACRAMENTO — (UP) — Gov. Earl Warren left last night on a transcontinental tour that will keep him traveling almost continually until he arrives June 21 at the Republican national convention in Philadelphia, where he will seek the Republican nomination for president.

The governor, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Dorothy, will go first to New York. During a three-day stay there he will make his first television appearance.

He goes to Portsmouth, N. H., June 12 for a meeting of the National Conference of Governors. He will fly back here in time to preside over a meeting June 17 of the 53 Republican convention delegates and their alternates.

The governor, the delegation and newsmen accompanying the party will board a special train for Philadelphia later the same day.

Area Scouts Win Praise

The Johnny Appleseed Area Boy Scouts council, led by Floyd Dent, executive, and 670 volunteer workers in Richland, Ashland and Crawford counties, were congratulated recently on their fine standing by Clarence Shiner, regional executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

In cub scouting Johnny Appleseed stood eighth among the 43 councils in three states and in senior scouting the council was 12th. The area council ranked 13th in Boy Scouting in the region.

Shiner indicated above average stability of Scouting in this area. Both Scouts and cubs stay longer after they join, and cub and Scout units remain for years in active operation.

State Asks Offers On Road Jobs

17 Miles of Highways To Be Resurfaced

The state highway department today sought bids on resurfacing of 17 miles of state routes and constructing and painting of guard rail along a number of state and federal highways in the Mansfield area. Bids will be received in Columbus until June 22.

Estimated cost of the projects is $50,950. The guard rail jobs must be completed by Sept. 1 and the resurfacing work by Oct. 1, 1948.

The resurfacing jobs include 2.19 miles of State Route 603 in Bloominggrove township, 4.78 miles of the same route in Weller, Butler, and Bloominggrove townships, 3.86 miles of State Route 598 in Plymouth township, 4.32 miles of State Route 98 in Plymouth township, all in Richland county, and 2.03 miles of State Route 302 in Orange township, Ashland county.

The state proposes to build guard rails along sections of Route 224 in Ashland county and Routes 42, 30 and 13 in Richland county.

The guard rail painting project includes jobs on Routes 3, 30, 42 and 250 in Ashland county, Routes 30-N and 30-S and 42 in Richland county, and Routes 30-N and 30-S in Crawford county.

Columbus Votes On Payroll Tax

COLUMBUS—(AP)—The newest method of financing municipal expenses in Ohio—the city payroll-income tax—was being tested at the polls today.

Columbus voters will ballot in a special referendum vote for or against this city's one-half of one per cent levy.

City officials warned that defeat of the income tax will result in curtailment of police and fire protection, rubbish collections, and similar municipal services.

Gov. Dewey Opposes Cut

ALBANY —(UP)— Gov. Thomas E. Dewey demanded yesterday the $2,000,000,000 cut in the European and China recovery programs be restored by the Republican-controlled Congress.

Dewey, contender for the GOP presidential nomination, joined with Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R.-Mich.), who is leading a fight to have the reduced appropriation placed back in the recovery program.

"The original authorizations for the European and China recovery programs were, in my judgment, the proper amounts required for the great purposes of these programs," Dewey said.

"I earnestly hope that the amounts which have been cut will be restored, thereby maintaining the confidence of the peoples of the free world in our good faith and leadership."

'Phone Company to Handle Telegrams In Mt. Gilead

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The communications commission yesterday authorized Western Union to turn over the handling of its telegrams to the local telephone companies in six Ohio towns.

Two members of the commission dissented, supporting the protest of the Commercial Telegraphers' union that the plan, involving competing mediums of communication, raises a question for examination under anti-trust laws.

Chairman Wayne Coy and Commissioner Clifford J. Durr joined in asserting that the arrangement will end competition between Western Union and the phone companies in Bellefontaine, Delphos, Lebanon, Marysville, Mount Gilead and Ottawa, where the arrangement will apply.

The majority, however, said the plan will give 24-hour telegraph service for the first time to telephone subscribers in 116 communities near the towns involved and that "the effects on competition are out-weighed by the benefits to the public." . . .

Commissioner Robert F. Jones said in a separate concurring opinion that the commission had approved similar arrangements elsewhere that the present case involves only two-one-hundreds of one percent of Western Union's total business and there is no occasion to regard the present authority as "a pattern for national policy."

Western Union, which says the business in the six towns does not warrant continued staff operations, proposes to let the Telephone Service company of Ohio act as its agent, channeling telegrams to Western Union over automatic printers.

Sen. Capper Won't Run

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Senator Arthur Capper, 83-year-old Kansas Republican, said today he isn't seeking reelection because 30 years in the Senate "is about long enough."

CAPPER

The veteran prohibition advocate, whose fifth Senate term expires at the end of this year announced on Sunday that he has "decided not to run for reelection."

Capper is the oldest man in the Senate, and is second only to Sen. Kenneth McKellar (D.-Tenn.) in length of service. McKellar has a 32-year record.

7 From Area Get Degrees

Seven students from the Mansfield area were among the 492 students who were graduated Sunday from Ohio university at Athens, as part of the largest June commencement class in history.

Four Ashlanders in the class were Ruth Nelson, 1228 Cottage street, bachelor of science in commerce; Wayne Ritter, 720 Sandusky street, bachelor of science in commerce; Shirley Shenberger, 125 West Main street, bachelor of fine arts, and Harold Zimmerman, 920 Orange street, bachelor of science in commerce.

Others from the area include Mary Anne Trimble, 105 Henry street, Crestline, bachelor of science in home economics; Howard Reep, 75 West Sandusky street, Fredericktown, bachelor of science in commerce; Ruth Hall, R. D. 2, Galion, bachelor of science, and Mrs. Paul H. Ulrich, 603 Dale avenue, Willard, bachelor of science in journalism.

Mrs. Ulrich was graduated with highest honors and Howard Reep was graduated with honors.

School Board to Re-Advertise Bids

PLYMOUTH — The Plymouth school board has decided to re-advertise bids construction of a grade school after making changes in the basement plans.

Only one bid for the construction of the four-room building was received by the board last week. The bid, entered by Frieble-Hartman, Shelby constructors, totaled $118,661, not including plumbing, heating, lighting and ventilation which would probably bring the total to $153,000.

"What runs our modern world?" somebody inquires. Why, committees, of course.

Sure, there is progress in the human race. Why, its members develop more ways to kill each other than all the rest of the animals put together.

It was a typographical error that resulted in a mention of "meat prizes" in yesterday's paper—yet, come to think of it, "prize" isn't such a bad substitute for "price" in making reference to dollar-a-pound meat.

Politics Intrudes On Truman's Trip

THERE is an element of pathos in the pre-convention cross-country trip being made by President Truman, despite the jollity he is attempting to show by smiles and wisecracks during back-platform appearances and at informal gatherings along the way.

Outstanding flop of the trip, thus far, was the Omaha experience where in an auditorium equipped to seat 10,000 persons the President spoke to an audience variously estimated at from 1,200 to 2,000. Ordinarily idle curiosity can be depended upon to attract a capacity crowd merely to catch a glimpse of a president of the United States.

Long before now all semblance of this being a "non-political" tour has been dropped, as every stop along the line is made the occasion for a get-together of local and state Democratic leaders who wish to have a word with the President—or to be included with him in a photograph.

A pathetic phase of the situation is that a man who sought to avoid being nominated for vice president, and who would never have been considered for the presidential nomination—except for the unforeseen succession—should now be placed in such an awkward position as to put up the outward appearance of expecting to be nominated and elected this year. His nomination seems unavoidable . . . his election highly improbable.

Benes Unsuited to Ignoble Role

IT MAY BE some time before the facts are known about the resignation of Eduard Benes as president of Russian-gobbled Czechoslovakia. The implications, however, are abundantly clear. Benes was a patriot in the highest sense of that term. He helped found the Czech republic and he was a firm believer in democracy as that term is understood in the western world.

The communist dictatorship of Soviet Russia represented the antithesis of all Benes stood for. When the lights of liberty went out in his unhappy country as the Russians took over, it became only a question of time until the Reds couldn't stand Benes or he couldn't stand them.

Benes made a perfect "front" for the Reds. The democracies knew and respected him. Yet with the death of Jan Masaryk (labeled "suicide" by the communists) there could be little doubt that Benes must eventually go, too. The younger Masaryk was Benes's foreign minister. Like his father, Thomas Masaryk—a founder and president of the nation, Jan was a true patriot. He could not stomach the Soviet lies and tyranny.

Unless Benes can escape from Czechoslovakia, it takes only one brutal guess on what will happen to him. He will soon be dead or he will be a hopeless captive, mentally and physically, of the Russian conquerors.

Such is the fate that the communists reserve alike for patriots or dupes.

The 'Buck' Is Tired of Being 'Passed'

AN EXAMPLE of slow motion in handling public business appears in a "Readers Forum" communication, elsewhere on this page.

It tells about an unsanitary condition that has been permitted to continue year after year in an open part of Ritter's Run, between Sturges and Glessner avenues, and of the unsuccessful efforts that have been made by residents of that vicinity to have the nuisance abated.

The condition has been "looked at" a number of times, it appears, with quite general agreement that "something should be done about it." BUT NOTHING HAS BEEN DONE!

Ritter's Run is a natural waterway entering the southwest part of the city and passing a short distance south of General hospital. Its course is partly tiled and partly an open ditch, in which raw sewage, wash water, garbage and rubbish is allowed to accumulate and, in hot weather, throw off a disgusting stench that pervades the entire neighborhood, which has had substantial residential growth in recent years.

Something CAN be done to correct such a condition—the question is WILL anything be done, and who is responsible for seeing that it IS done?

Fear Induces Hoarding Supplies

ONE of the accomplishments of the United States Aid Mission to Greece in its first year of operation was the uncovering and distribution of millions of dollars worth of UNNRA supplies which has been held in storage, according to the report to the President by Dwight Griswold, head of the mission.

It seems paradoxical that these supplies were held in storage while people needed them. But the situation is not so unusual as might be thought.

In their book, "Thunder Out of China", in the section about the war, Theodore H. White and Annalee Jacoby reported that American units working in China sometimes came upon large stocks of ammunition and other military stores in areas abandoned by troops which fell back partly because of lack of ammunition and weapons. People conditioned by years and generations of meager living have an urge to hoard, even in hard times, against yet harder times which might come.

This urge is one of the things which must be taken into account when extending aid to hard-pressed peoples.

What Some Other People Are Saying

Business Before Pleasure, Henry.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Replies to Russian 'Feelers' Lack Skill

THE state department has now issued another blast at the USSR in the current cold war of hot words. It is a listing of 37 cases of Soviet violations of international agreements. It is a list which will probably be followed by an answer impressive only to the communists and Henry Wallace. There has been quite an exchange since General-Ambassador Smith accidentally threw the ball into play.

True, General Smith says he was imposed upon. Considering the fact that he is no diplomat, that is not surprising. But of all places where we need a diplomat who won't be imposed upon, it is the Kremlin.

General Smith is only the latest of a long series of ambassadors, beginning with William Bullitt 15 years ago, who seems to have been inept. This is not to argue that the Soviet government has a case. It is merely to say that we have not sent a representative there whose personal qualifications seem to be equal to the job.

The Kremlin in these days is a place for an American ambassador of the quality of Charles Francis Adams, who held off Britain during the Civil war, or John Bigelow, who accompanied the same thing in France at the same time. It may be hard to get a man of that caliber, but certainly there are many American business and professional men who are more skillful in negotiation than is General Smith.

* * *

Course Appears Weak.

THE character of the Soviet-American exchange—as evidenced by the state department's statements and some hostile and misleading press comments which have appeared—is hardly favorable to American prestige in Western Europe and in Asia.

There are increasing suggestions that General Marshall himself might step down and give somebody else a chance. As one man put it: "A manager in big league baseball may be a great fellow, but if he can't win games, somebody else must step in."

Our government is dealing with a power which has little diplomatic principle, it is true. Also, the Soviet government has developed the art of exasperation to an astounding degree.

But that makes it still more essential that we turn such moves of the Soviet as their first statement and Stalin's answer to Wallace to better account in Western Europe and the rest of the world. Nobody cares who invented the methods. What matters is that they be more effective.

As it is, we are creating the impression that our diplomatic moves are determined in the light of a political campaign at home. That is what the Wallace exchange suggested to the world.

We are dealing with a situation in which our answers cannot all be negative. Nor can they be confined to the repetition of propositions we have made in the past and which Russia ignored or rebuffed. We must invent new propositions which would show no weakening in our position but which would put Russia to the pains of finding new reasons for disagreement.

In short, we must re-establish the diplomatic offensive which we have surrendered to Russia. The way to impress the world is to make it plain that we are trying to make peace and that Russia is unwilling to cooperate.

Ask Attention to Ritter's Run

Editor News-Journal:

I just read the article in The News-Journal on "How to Maintain a Healthy City." This is all well and good if the proper authorities would cooperate.

We taxpayers on Ohio street, between Sturges and Glessner avenues, have an unsanitary condition in Ritter's Run. For six years we have been trying to have this corrected, but no results. Raw sewage, wash water, garbage, and rubbish of all kinds lay in this infested stink hole.

We have been to the city council, to the mayor, and to the health authorities. They send someone out to look at it and they hold their noses and say it should be taken care of at once. It ends there. They tell us it is the city's, or the county's, or sometimes our problem.

We have twenty-seven homes housing eighty-seven people, thirty of which are children under ten years of age. Of all the unsanitary conditions that can develop in a city the size of Mansfield this is the most dangerous. It should be taken care of before an epidemic of some kind develops, especially with the polio season at hand.

If this should happen it could spread over the entire city. We have asked the authorities of the schools in this vicinity to forbid the children walking along the creek to and from school.

This condition exists within five minutes walk from the city square. With our modern airport and the Clear Fork project under way, should the city's health conditions be neglected? Let's do something about it, and NOW

Washington Calling

Cost of Truman's Tour

By MARQUIS CHILDS

IN A presidential election year it was certain that the opposition would make capital out of President Truman's "non-political" tour of the country. The taxpayer, so the accusation goes, is paying for what is actually a campaign trip.

That is essentially true. But when the facts are looked at in relation to the whole picture of political spending, the trip is seen to be a small item of the cost that, in the final analysis, is dumped onto long-suffering John Q. Public.

To begin with, the bill for the President's tour will be comparatively small. The total cost for the President, his aides and the stenographers who do typing and mimeographing of speeches and statements, will be under $15,000. The military and naval aides have their own travel allowances, and the cost for the secret service is paid out of treasury appropriations.

What the public seldom realizes, seeing a 15 or 16-car presidential train, is that the newspapers and radio correspondents and the technicians who accompany them always pay their own expenses. Thus, the forty or more correspondents who make the circuit will pay approximately $500 each in railroad fare alone.

The President will pay for his share out of the allowance of $30,000 a year for travel and entertainment included in the White House budget. Although this allowance has been increased to $40,000 for the coming fiscal year, it is still inadequate, being less than the amount allowed the British ambassador in Washington for those purposes.

* * *

Campaign Fund Short.

SINCE the cost of the trip to the President is so small, it would have seemed far sounder political judgment to charge it up to the Democratic national committee. If that had been done, the President might have said that, while this was essentially an inspection tour, he was bending over backward in a political year and was not putting it on the White House budget.

A significant fact, of course, is that the Democratic treasury is nearly empty. Mr. Truman's chances of re-election seem almost nil. Of the 50 Washington correspondents polled by Newsweek, representing a wide range of opinion and conviction, not one believed the Democrats would win in November. Hence, contributions have all but dried up.

By contrast at least, the GOP is bursting at the seams with money. In spite of the Corrupt-Practices Act and other restraints, contributions come from those who want to exert influence with the next President. They want to get favors out of the incoming administration.

Those favors may be relatively small—a showy ambassadorship, for example. Or they may be so large as to mean a rise in the cost to the consumer of a basic commodity.

A new President is sometimes put under grave embarrassment when heavy contributors come around to collect after the election.

That is why the suggestion has been seriously advanced that the cost of presidential campaigns for all parties be paid out of the federal treasury. It has been argued with considerable force that the cost to the average citizen would, in the long run, be a lot less if Uncle Sam footed the entire bill.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Data On Housing Witnesses Suppressed

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Michigan's Congressman Jesse Wolcott, who has been bottling up the housing bill, thought he would show he was not anti-veteran by calling two witnesses to speak for the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He did this despite the fact that he had a telegram in his pocket officially repudiating the two witnesses. Signed by Merle Hopper, Michigan VFW commander, the telegram read:

"George Lyle and Arthur Greig purported to represent Michigan Department VFW on housing at your committee hearings. No one but myself is authorized to speak for VFW in Michigan on any subject before Congress."

Deliberately ignoring this protest from the VFW commander, Wolcott in effect deceived the public of putting Greig and Lyle on the stand to denounce low-cost housing for war vets.

He also failed to mention that Greig and Lyle for a long time have been playing hand-in-glove with the real-estate lobby in Detroit.

However, Representative Hale Boggs of Louisiana, himself a veteran, did not let Wolcott get away with this. He asked Lyle if the national VFW was for public housing. Knowing the answer was "yes," Wolcott had the nerve to try to interrupt Boggs. But the Louisianan persisted:

"I insist on an answer to my question as to whether the national VFW has indorsed this bill—yes or no."

Lyle finally had to admit that the Veterans of Foreign Wars favored passage of the housing bill and that he and Greig were speaking only for themselves. Chairman Wolcott looked very sick.

Hitler's Standards

IN SETTING up the standards for admitting 200,000 displaced persons into the United States, the Senate approved some tricky language the other day aimed at excluding most Jews and Catholics. In so doing, the Senate actually accepted Hitler's yardstick in singling out those entitled to American refuge.

But what the senators probably didn't realize is that their legal doubletalk may also get the United States into hot water on the diplomatic front, for the bill to admit displaced persons was worded in such a way as to give tacit recognition to the Soviet conquest of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania.

The state department has been careful not to recognize Russia's annexation of these tiny Baltic states, but the Senate bill requires that 50 per cent of the refugees permitted to enter the USA must come from a country that has been "annexed by a foreign power." This can only mean the three Baltic states swallowed by Russia.

The hidden purpose of this provision is to keep out Jews and Catholics, since there are none in Latvia, Estonia or Lithuania.

West Virginia's Republican Senator Chapman Revercomb, who championed these "Hitler amendments," fought down several attempts by Democratic Senators Howard McGrath of Rhode Island and Carl Hatch of New Mexico to liberalize the bill.

When Revercomb's bill finally reached the Senate floor, McGrath snorted in disgust: "The mountain has labored and brought forth a mouse."

Note—Senator William Langer, North Dakota Republican, pushed through an amendment which would admit 27,000 persons of German ethnic origin to this country every year. These are the Sudeten Germans who formed the fifth column for Hitler's expansion in Czechoslovakia.

* * *

Peeve Affects Canada.

SENATOR Chapman Revercomb, West Virginia Republican, is blocking a bill that would permit former Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson to serve without pay as head of the joint U. S.-Canadian Defense Commission.

Acheson, whose resignation from the state department was a great loss to American diplomacy, cannot take the post as long as his law firm does business with the United States government. As a matter of routine, Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, drafted a bill exempting Acheson from this technicality. But Revercomb, peeved at McGrath over some differences on the displaced-persons problem, has taken out his peeve by refusing to pass the bill out of his judiciary subcommittee.

Georgia and Truman.

GEORGIA'S Senator Dick Russell and political boss Herman Talmadge have been keeping the wires burning between Washington and Atlanta over the following interesting subject: To support or not to support Senator Walter George for the presidency.

For some time Russell has been looking for another candidate to back. Privately he picked his Senate colleague, George: decided to issue a public statement. But first, Russell checked by telephone with the son of the late red-gallused Gene Talmadge.

Herman Talmadge was pleased with the choice, promised that the Georgia delegation would vote for George. But something went wrong. When the state Democratic committee met, it refused to take orders, decided to send its delegates to the Republican convention uninstructed.

Now Russell is just a bit out on the limb, isn't saying who he'll back in the future.

Things Need Explaining

By THOMAS L. STOKES

NO FRONTIER town bursting with original sin at every crevice ever offered the wandering evangelist a better text than the 80th Congress provides for President Truman for his tour across the country to talk with the folks.

Sins of omission and commission are plentiful.

The President will see lots of people who are struggling to make even good wages bridge the gap caused by inflation. Congress has done nothing effective about that, and doesn't intend to.

He will see lots of people who have no decent place to live, including many war veterans and their families.

Yet, as the President starts out, the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill, which could begin to do something about that, is hogtied in a House committee by consent of an adamant Republican House leadership which won't even let the supposed representatives of the people vote on it.

And so on down the line with other measures to improve conditions among people with whom the President will visit. They are all apparently hopelessly stranded — the bills for federal aid to education in poorer communities where the local tax yield is insufficient to provide proper facilities; for increasing the minimum wage of hundreds of thousands of white collar workers not protected by unions; for increasing the pensions of old people who can not get by with present meager allowances, for assistance to local health programs. And others long pending.

Lots of people the President will see are interested in a peaceful world where trade can move freely among nations, and such free movement of trade means cheaper goods for all of us as well as being an incentive to peace.

Yet the House recently passed a bill that virtually wrecks the reciprocal tariff program resigned to promote trade, and in such form that it is going to be extremely difficult, if not impossible, for the Senate to rescue in workable form a policy established for 14 years.

Opportunity To Explain.

THERE are two things today that impress the long-time observer of this city and its government. One is the callous spirit in Congress, the hard-boiled, don't-care attitude toward the public interest.

The other is the brazen spirit and cockiness of big special interests whose representatives, commonly called lobbyists, are here in such numbers now as not since the twenties, reveling in the friendly atmosphere and exploiting the lack of interest in the public welfare. They are getting what they want, which in some cases means stopping what they don't want.

The public generally seems apathetic to all this. This is perhaps natural and typical of the yearning for "normalcy" after a great emotional upheaval such as the Second World War.

It was that way after the First World War. There are plenty of jobs and so much loose money around, though it takes more and more every week for the grocer.

It is hard always, too, for the public to follow the sleight of hand in Congress by which legislation is doctored up or made to disappear in committee pigeonholes, especially when the man out front who is supposed to be a sort of master of ceremonies for the public, meaning the President, is not very clever at explaining how the tricks are done.

He is now going out to devote himself to explaining.

He starts out on his tour to try to revive interest in himself and his policies with his fortunes at a very low ebb. The polls indicate the threat that he may be yanked from the wings. And, as he begins his missionary work with the folks, every one of 50 newspaper correspondents here polled by Newsweek magazine are of the opinion that he can't be re-elected

Dave Boone Says:

PRESIDENT TRUMAN is on the trip he insists is strictly non-political and I'll try to believe it up to the point where he puts on an Indian headdress. A 10,000-mile trip through the west is a terrific test on this point. I don't think Harry can make it.

* * *

You can get an idea what the war against juvenile crime is up against from that picture in Brooklyn where a district attorney and the head of the state liquor control are both belittling a judge's story of evil conditions instead of gladly lending a hand.

* * *

It remained for a probation officer, one Edmond Fitzgerald, to put it in a nutshell by saying the charges were not, of course, ever intended as legal proof of a liquor-law violation—merely to call attention to sore spots which have often figured in criminal cases and seem a continuing menace.

* * *

"If such information can't be used constructively against an evil at the root of much of our crime, of if the liquor authority can't bother to go out and see for itself, the whole matter would better be disregarded," he adds. And that statement is recommended for study all over America—where everybody knows the kids are getting liquor at too many package stores and taverns with little or no trouble.

Wild Strawberries

By CALVIN A. BYERS

I WALKED along a byroad of our valley, within earshot of a neighbor's home. It was evening. I smelled the supper odor—meat cooking and bread baking in the kitchen. Children were squealing and romping through the yard. From the barn, where lights were on, came the sound of milk streaming into a pail, soon smothered by foam.

By the roadside I came suddenly upon a patch of wild strawberries. Fruits, large and plump as small hickory nuts, hung deeply scarlet from a sheltering leaf. They glowed, as if from some unseen force, not all their own. I stood there looking for a minute or so, admiring and surprised. Poetry came stirring to mind.

"All shapes and sounds have something which is not of them
A spirit broods amid the grass
Vague outlines of the everlasting thought . . .
A touch of the eternal Presence thrills
The fringes of the sunset and the hills."

The little hollow where they grew seemed like a living flame that gave strange warmth and comfort. A bobolink came from the grass and plunged into the treasure. His sable beak sank into the rich red fruit and the red wine of the berry painted his face with scarlet which he did not wipe away, but gleefully enjoyed.

A bolder robin happened by and restlessly pecked the richest of the fruit. Now—I thought—Nature has ordered that new fields of wild berries must be scattered far and wide. Then I plucked the most perfect specimens I could find, harvesting where I had not sown, until my fingers were red and the distilled sweetness of that rugged soil clung to me like rare perfume.

John Burroughs said, "God might have made something more beautiful than a strawberry, but he never did."

Big luscious strawberries in a bowl upon the table are a pleasing sight. Long burdened rows of ripened fruit in a field where a dozen pickers work are interesting. But for real sensitive enjoyment and delicacy of flavor give me those that grow along back country lanes among the "blue-eyed grass," unseen by any human eyes until some adventurer finds them.

MAX E. LEHNER WEDS MISS BETTY LOU HART

Couple Exchanged Nuptial Vows In Bride's Home June 1; Fredericktown Pastor Officiates.

MR. AND MRS. MAX EUGENE LEHNER have been residing at 239 Helen avenue, the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Lehner, since their marriage Tuesday, June 1. The bride was the former Miss Betty Lou Hart and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Hart, 379 Lexington avenue.

The marriage rite was conducted at 5 p. m. in the home of the bride and the Rev. R. S. McCutchen, pastor of the First Methodist church at Fredericktown, officiated.

The mantle formed an improvised altar and it was decked with huckleberry greenery and white gladioli. Palms stood at either side of the mantle and the scene was lighted with torches.

Mr. Hart escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage She was wearing an aqua suit and all her accessories were white. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Miss Sally Hart was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Ellen Bromfield of Malabar Farm. Miss Hart wore a beige suit and a corsage of red rosebuds and Miss Bromfield was attired in a white dress which was complemented by a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Hart wore a tan tweed suit and her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Lehner's two-piece dress was of brown and white print and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Mario Guy LaYacona was Mr. Lehner's best man.

The wedding dinner was served at the Fairway restaurant. Ten guests were present. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the table and tapers burned in candelabra on either side of the centerpiece.

Both young people were students at Mansfield Senior high school and Wednesday evening they marched together in the graduation exercises at the school. Mr. Lehner served two years with the United States Coast Guard. He is now employed by the Westinghouse Electric corporation.

Mansfielders Feted In Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Shill, 234 Sheridan avenue, were feted Sunday afternoon with a dinner given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Shill, Maple Lane, Shaker Heights. Dinner was served from a long table centered with a large cake and pink tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Shill were united in marriage at St. Peter's Catholic church by the Rev. Father Maganhan, June 7, 1887. They are the parents of six children, Clarence, Marie, Bertha, Urias, Eugene, and the late Charles. Mrs. Ralph Dilon, Mrs. James Roberts, and Jack and Robert Shill are the grandchildren.

Social Club Plans Picnic July 23

The Woodville Social Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Minnie McCullough, 541 South Main street, with Mrs. Paul Koozer was associate hostess.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. Clara Calver and Mrs. Cloyd Fox.

A picnic for members and their families was planned for June 23 at North Lake park. The next regular meeting will be July 2 when Mrs. Fred Dillon, Lucas road, and Mrs. C. C. Secrist entertain.

June Meeting

The June meeting of the Speppo Club was held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Greer, 495 South Diamond street. Games were the diversion and prizes were won by Miss Wanda Conrad and Mrs. Ralph Arras. Mrs. John Laughlin was in charge of the social hour. The club planned a steak fry to be held June 20 at a roadside park for members and their guests.

Jean Herrick Honored With Bridal Showers

Miss Jean Herrick was honored June 6 with shower at the home of Mrs. Russell Wilcox, 525 Francis avenue, Cuyahoga Falls. Mrs. Louis Brunyanski was the associate hostess. Games were played and the prizes were awarded to the bride elect.

Ten guests were served at a long table centered with a wedding cake. Ice cream in the form of wedding bells was served.

Miss Herrick was also honored with a shower recently at the home of Mrs. Harley W. Herrick, 218½ West Fifth street. Miss Margaret Tipul assisted the hostess. Games were played and the prizes presented to the honoree.

The guests were seated at a long table centered with mixed flowers.

At each shower Miss Herrick received a corsage from the hostesses.

Miss Herrick is the bride elect of Robert Dagarin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Dagarin, East Palestine. Miss Herrick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs C. C. Herrick, 218 West Fifth street June 26 is the date for her marriage. The double ring ceremony will be solemnized at 10:30 a. m. in St. Peter's Catholic church. Open church will be observed.

Astowela Club Arranges Flowers

Twenty-three members of the Astowela Garden Club and two guests, the Misses Heartburg of Topeka, Kan., were present Friday when the regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Emerson Weller, Overlook road. Mrs. H. H. Shaw served as associate hostess.

A buffet luncheon was served at noon from a table artistically decorated with an arrangement of lavender iris and lemon lilies. The same appointments were used on the serving table Mrs. C. A. Hines and Mrs. W. F Bolley poured.

Miss Grace Wolcott, president, opened the program with a poem, "Flowers." Mrs. Hines spoke on "The Minah Bird" in Honolulu. Mrs. Weller, conservation chairman, told the group of the dogwood trees at the Children's Home grounds and advised that they needed immediate attention.

Mrs. C. V. McConnell, horticulture chairman, reminded the members that roses should be dusted at this time.

Members who made flower arrangements and described them were Mrs. Bolley, Mrs. Hines, Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. Paul McConnell, Mrs. D. S. Porch and Miss Wolcott. Roll call was answered on the topic, "Mistakes I Will Not Make Again." This was followed by a plant exchange.

On June 18 Mrs. George Holland, Euclid avenue, will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. Paul McConnell.

Freund Family Reunion Held

The Freund reunion was held at Johns park recently with a covered-dish dinner There were approximately 110 present. Three brides, Mrs Eddie Vogel, Mansfield; Mrs. William Freund, Oregon, and Mrs. John Blumenshein, Texas, were introduced.

Library Releases 5 Books For Junior High Readers

LAST WEEK saw the beginning of the new Summer Reading club for older boys and girls. A separate corner has been set aside in the Children's Room for the books for older readers. To help start the new club each of the five new books released for circulation last week are for junior high age readers. Of the five books, two are intended for girls, two for boys, and the fifth for both.

All the girls who have read "Trudy Terrill, Eighth Grader," will be glad to know that Bernice Bryant has written a second book. This is TRUDY TERRILL, HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMAN. Trudy could scarcely live till the high school opened. It was going to be such fun—new friends, new secrets to whisper, new boys, and of course, dates. But it wasn't! It was strange and confusing. Trudy spent weeks being miserable and then she landed on her feet and got busy. If things were all wrong Trudy was the one to fix them. Fix them she did, and soon everything was as she had dreamed it—only better!

A GIRL CAN DREAM by Betty Cavanna tells about Loretta and a strange kind of contest. Rette, as she was called, wasn't really interested in flying when she entered the contest. Someone said girls wouldn't want flying lessons and that was the prize. That was enough to make Rette try. She was more surprised than anyone when she won—but she made good use of her lessons. You may be as surprised as Loretta was to see how much you can get from flying lessons—besides knowing how to fly a plane!

DUSTY OF THE DOUBLE SEVEN by Graham Dean is a modern cowboy story with all the action and suspense and color of the old-time West. Bob Rhodes came back from the Marines to take a job on his friend's ranch. He was met with a lassoo, a gun and orders to walk back to town and not turn around on the way. Bob was mad, through and through. When the mistake was cleared up and he met the right people he set himself to find the men who had attacked him and who were obviously rustling cattle on the side. With the friends he made on the ranch, Bob, soon nicknamed Dusty, tracked the rustlers. There was shooting on both sides, help from the police and a new twist in a western story before the whole affair was completely settled. This is a natural for older boys.

Edward Ford has written four books for boys, each showing in human terms what it means to follow a given career. The fourth, JEFF ROBERTS: RAILROADER, is much the best. First, railroading is more interesting and second, the story is better. Jeff came from a family of railroad men, who kept odd hours and loved their jobs in spite of it. Jeff was proud to be a "railroad man," even in a small way. There are more little jobs to railroading than most of us have any idea—Jeff did them all. He worked up from call-boy, to fireman, and to engineer. There's a slight mystery, and quite a little suspense.

MYSTERY OF THE HORSESHOE CAVES by Jane Selkirk is a book for both girls and boys. The plot is much too complicated to tell, even in part. The characters are a grup of children of various ages, left alone for a week in a camp. There are caves to explore—and of course they start at once. Children appear and disappear, strange men appear and disappear; all is confusion, suspense and mystery. I couldn't put it down till I'd finished it and I bet you won't, either.

This is an excellent meal for the hot days descending upon us with June and summer weather. The Ground Beef Skillet Meal is one of those flavorful whole meal concoctions prepared in one pan on the top of the stove. It adds little heat to the kitchen and saves on dish washing, too.

The whole dish takes about half an hour to prepare and 20 minutes of that time is free for preparing a salad and setting the table.

GROUND BEEF SKILLET MEAL
Yield: 6 servings

1 pound ground beef	1 cup sliced onions
1 cup soft bread crumbs	¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon salt	1 cup whole tomatoes, cooked
⅛ teaspoon pepper	1 cup tomato juice
1 cup whole kernel corn

Combine ground beef, soft bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper. Fry in heavy skillet, stirring frequently until well browned. Cover ground beef with corn and onions. Sprinkle ¾ teaspoon salt over onions. Next add whole tomatoes. Do not stir mixture but leave vegetables in layers over meat. Add tomato juice, cover and simmer 20 minutes or until vegetables are tender.

Horoscope

For Wednesday, June 9.

THE augurıes of this day emphasize concentrated, well-organized and executed plans and projects, based on a foundation of lasting and far-reaching results This should be instrumental in establishing basic security and concrete objectives for the future as well as the present. Diligence, patience, astute and studied action should win support from those in high places who are ready to recognize merit and reward it. Personality likewise counts for much in this, although an undercurrent of duplicity or subtlety could create complications. Beware misplaced confidence.

For the Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is are assured of sound openings for working, by concentrated efforts, industry and shrewd tactics, for future basic security Far-seeing and adroit plans, with studied goals and objectives, could attract substantial encouragement from those in influential positions, ready to give opportunity and reward for merit and sterling efforts. While the use of personality, charm, cultural or social graces might have weight in such conclusions as well, there is hazard of subtle or sinister complications, calling for upright and open dealings to gain any sort of lasting returns.

YOU MEET SUCH INTERESTING PEOPLE

(And it's the little things about them that intrigue you!)

Lots of girls own gold compacts, and recently it's become a fad, in the set that can afford such baubles, to collect little items like perfume flacons, lipstick holders and taxi whistles in 14 karat gold — but certainly "Mousie" Powell is the only living women with a solid gold yo-yo

"Mousie," who is Diane Lewis to the movie fans and Mrs. William Powell on her visiting cards can sit on a barnyard fence any time she feels like it and dangle her yo-yo, serene in the knowledge that it won't clash with her bracelets. It was given to her by Charlie Farrell, the one time silent screen star (who might be described as a man who knows what to give a girl who has everything) and in my opinion it has Lucius Beebe's glittering toothpick beat a mile

* * *

Bing Crosby sponsors a research foundation which finances inventors whose ideas are too fantastic for big corporations. His Rube Goldbergs came up with one of the vital discoveries for the atom bomb—but don't ask Bing to explain it unless you like blank expressions . . . Grace Hartman started life as a dancing protegee of Ruth St. Denis, and still wraps her feet in honey before she goes to bed at night. Which may be why she and Paul now have separate bedrooms in their Great Neck home.

* * *

You've read reams of copy about Lana Turner, but did you know that she is an avid follower of Kahlil Gibran? (You heard me!) In addition to her intense interest in the Oriental philosopher, Lana foists volumes of Gibran's writings on any friend who displays the slightest curiosity about him.

Maggi McNellis, one of Manhattan's most photogenic as well as most popular personalities, probably deserves the title Best Listener as well as the Best Dressed honor that's been awarded her for three years in succession. Her ability to lend an ear stems from her long held belief that people are more fun than anything.

To quote her: "Opening some mysterious package isn't nearly as interesting as learning to know a person. There is always some surprise in store." Her husband, art gallery director Clyde Newhouse, gives their friends nicknames suggested by their surnames and his own sense of humor. For example he calls John Hertz "Give Till It," refers to artist Charles Baskerville as "Hound of the," and plagues poor John Loder, the actor, by calling him "Free."

Bergman, Crosby Favorites In American Women's Poll

Ingrid Bergman is the favorite movie actress of American women for the second year in succession, according to the Woman's Home Companion's fourth annual opinion poll, results of which appears in the June issue. Bing Crosby leads male stars in the poll for the third year.

With more than one in every four women voting for Ingrid Bergman, the stars rated as follows:

Actress—1. Ingrid Berman, 2. Greer Garson, 3. Claudette Colbert, 4. Bette Davis, 5. Joan Crawford, 6 Irene Dunne, 7. Rosalind Russell, 8 June Allyson, 9. Barbara Stanwyck, 10. Lana Turner.

Actor—1. Bing Crosby, 2 Gregory Peck, 3. Spencer Tracy, 4. Cary Grant, 5. Clark Gable, 6. Walter Pidgeon, 7. Gary Cooper, 8 Jimmy Stewart, 9. Ronald Coleman, 10. Dana Andrews.

In similar polls conducted by the Companion among its millions of women readers top voting went to Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon in 1945; to Greer Garson and Bing Crosby in 1946, and to Ingrid Bergman and Crosby in 1947.

Although Greer Garson continued in second place in this year's poll, she is very closely followed by Claudette Colbert who increased her votes from seven to 11 per cent and gained one place over her rank of third last year. Bette Davis, second in 1945 and third in 1946 is now in fourth place while Joan Crawford jumped from seventh place last year to fifth in the present poll. Barbara Stanwyck and Lana Turner are newcomers to the top ten women favorites this year. Dorothy McQuire received a special mention although she did not rate among the first ten.

Of the favorite actresses, those most popular with younger women are Bergman, Bette Davis, June Allyson and Lana Turner; those most popular with older women are Greer Garson, Claudette Colbert and Barbara Stanwyck, while Rosalind Russell and Joan Crawford are favorites with the middle age group

All Concerned Snub Dewey Trying to Aid Expelled Trio

NEW YORK—Governor Dewey interceded for three employes of a department store who had been ordered expelled from their local of Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers of the CIO for anti-communist agitation. He was snubbed by all concerned.

The store expressed confidence that the international, or parent union, which runs an appellate court for such cases, would "assure that the rights of every individual member would be safeguarded in accordance with the American tradition." That confidence is not shared by the general public.

All the parties who joined in this rebuke to the governor of the state of New York reveal a misconception of their own authority and of the authority of the state government which is paramount.

They believe they are legally competent to usurp the job of the state industrial commissioner whose office was established by act of the legislature. They are mistaken.

* * *

It Is Not For The Management of a store to decide questions which have been referred to an official agency of the state government for inquiry and recommendation. The management of a business may stand in fear of a union and so may express opinions which are impure. And no employer has any proper voice in any internal union dispute which this was nothing else but.

The question here is whether a union may expel members for acts within the ban on "unionlike activity." In the union jurisprudence this term is as broad as the terms "disorderly conduct" and "suspicion" are to the police.

The three victims in the present case were tried by their local, according to its regular system. There was a trial before a committee, according, to the union's own laws, and the convictions were upheld by an overwhelming majority of those present at a membership meeting. This local is a "left wing" union and that term has always included the communists. The socialists, social democrats and all such riff-raff are leftwingers, too, but the communists dominate the wing.

* * *

The Political Character of the rank and file here may be judged by the nature of the dispute and the sentiment of the majority. This was, in fact, an opposition raised by a few individuals against the candidacy of Henry Wallace and the communist treason.

A great majority of the rank and file obviously will vote for Wallace and he will sweep many New York areas of employment where the patriotism is not "narrow nationalism." Wallace may even stampede the city and by his vote unwittingly warn the United States of the ominous enormity of the treason which resides and votes here.

The case here is a compact presentation of the reality of union government over American citizens as established by Roosevelt and confirmed by the sordid New Deal courts. Not by any intention of Congress but by a continental European political scheme millions were subjected to a system of laws, trials and punishments devised to protect the union bosses from deposition and maintain their power which they in turn placed at the service of Roosevelt.

The place to try the truth or falsity of statements and to impose punishments obviously is not in a private circle with the plaintiff on the jury but in a public court. The crime of disruption so often alleged against dissenters is the crime that created the C.I.O. in the first place.

Goodwill Kicked Out Window, Art Director's Head Rolls

BROADWAY HASSENPHEFFER: Latest head to roll over at Collier's is the art director's, according to Writer's Newsletter. (Confirming what we've been colyuming all along.) The mag owners feel that considerable good-will has been kicked right out the window—and so they will kick out most at the helm for being so careless with the stockholders' money! . . . Henry Wallace's right-hander (Harold Young) is practising law in Odessa (sic!), Texas . . . The juxtaposition of the current shows in the amusement pages now read: "Mr. Roberts" . . . "Respectful Prostitute" . . . "Sleepy Hollow" . . . "Strange Bedfellows" . . . 42nd St. between B'way and 8th—Nightmare Alley—because of the characters it attracts for those gruesome flickers . . . Girl Scouts Get Awards At Session

Red Cross Official Talks At Niniwan

Thirty-seven Mansfield Girl Scouts were awarded their swimming and life saving badges last night at a special court of awards held at Camp Niniwan.

Main speaker of the evening was Gerald Coron, director of first aid and water safety of the Richland County Red Cross chapter, Coron's topic was "The American Red Cross Water Safety Program" which he illustrated with two moving pictures showing water safety practices in swimming and in the use of small craft. Coron was introduced by Mrs. Ward Ingraham, registrar of sports and games.

Presented by Mrs. Joy Herbert, Girl Scout commissioner, the badges for swimming went to: Loretta Herf, Janice McMullen, Carolyn McElhaney, Barbara Young, Janet Gray, Margaret Rust, Jo Anne Stansky, Marilyn Ernst, Mary Lou Smith, Ellen Jo Fankhauser, Beverly Riggle, Martha Jane Farry, Barbara Foncannon, Eleanor Wilson, Alice Beatty, Lani Zipf, Barbara Wiegman, Ann Hanrahan, Annette Brucato, Mary Lou Anderson, Shirley Conroy, Roberta Longsdorf, Barbara Feigenbaum, Marianne Davison.

Given the American Red Cross junior life saving badge and the Girl Scout life saver badges were Jean Hathaway, Joy Ann Herbert, Mildred Cook, Rosemary Jones, Nancy Urich, Carolyn Kendig, Kathleen Bolin and Audrey Roberts.

Receiving all three badges, including Girl Scout swimmers and life savers badges and the Red Cross life saving badge were Charlotte Guiher, Patsy Zink, Barbara McDevitt, and Jean Craft.

The cyclist badge was presented to Shurlene Scheurer.

Boy Escapes Serious Injury

A six-year-old North Weldon avenue boy escaped with minor bruises yesterday when he was struck by a car, police said.

The child, Larry Richter, 141½ North Weldon avenue, suffered only a bruised muscle in his right leg. Mother of the child, Mrs. Leo A. Richter, said today that a medical examination of the child following the accident failed to reveal any serious injury.

The accident was reported to police by Arthur A. Diemer, 226 Cline avenue, who said he was traveling south on Weldon avenue at 2:45 p. m. yesterday when the child ran between two parked cars into the path of his car. Diemer said he was traveling 20 miles per hour at the time and that the mishap occurred about 20 feet north of West Temple court.

Hopes to Complete Viaduct In Month

Street Supt. E. W. Davis reported today that the wooden flooring for the Mulberry street viaduct was being shipped this week by the Baker Wood Preserving company from Marion and workmen would start installing it next week.

"We hope to have the job completed in the next three to four weeks," Davis said, "unless wet weather holds us up."

Cites Ruling On Garbage

Burton Says Dumping In Park Prohibited

Park Supt. Frank Burton warned today that anyone caught dumping tin cans or garbage in Maple Lake park will be prosecuted.

"At one time," he explained, "we permitted the dumping of earth and stones at the park when we were filling up the lake. People have started to dump garbage and tin cans and although we've put up three signs prohibiting dumping, it still continues."

He said the dumping of garbage has become a health hazard and that new signs would be erected and offenders brought into court. The three old signs were stolen.

"So much garbage and trash has been dumped out there, that it is falling out into the street," Burton said.

Burton's warning coincides with a crack-down now being conducted by Sheriff Frank E. Robinson who has arrested two persons in the past week or dumping garbage along a public thoroughfare.

Mrs. Lovell, 72, Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Mary Lovell, 72, of 146 South Main street, died early today at Mercy hospital in Toledo following several weeks illness.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. C. B. Carlin and Mrs. C. L. Jacobs, Mansfield; a son, Lloyd Lovell, Fremont; two sisters, Mrs. C. L. McAnallen and Mrs. P. J. O'Brien, Tulsa, Okla.; a brother, W. B. LaPointe, Los Angeles, Calif.; eight grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are being made at the Wolford funeral home and services will be announced later.

Peppy Pals Club Plans Wiener Roast

Twenty-one members of the Peppy Pals 4-H club met last night at the home of Anna Jane Huls, Park avenue west road.

Boy members of the group organized a stamp club and girls brought samples of the cakes and cookies baked for their homemaking project. A recreational period with refreshments followed the meeting.

The next meeting of the group will be a wiener roast, June 14 at the home of Ronnie Evans, Park avenue west road. Mrs. Royal Buchanan is adviser of the group.

Third Trial Sought

CANTON—(AP)—Attorneys for John Harvey Haley, 17, who was convicted a second time of second degree murder for complicity in a holdup killing, have asked for another trial. They claim certain irregularities were committed in the last sessions. Haley's first conviction was reversed by the U. S. supreme court.

Two Men Charged In Gun Burglary

Affidavits charging Torrence Jefferson Freeman, 9 John Long avenue, and John Berger jr., Lucas, with breaking into the Clyde Adams gun shop early Saturday morning were filed in municipal court today.

Freeman was arrested after a short chase by police, and Berger was apprehended yesterday by detectives who investigated the case.

The affidavits were brought up to the court office shortly before 9:30 a. m. today, but not in time to be docketed, so arraignment of the pair was postponed until tomorrow.

The affidavits charge that eight guns and seven boxes of cartridges were taken from the shop at 534 Bowman street after the pair allegedly broke the rear window and entered the shop.

A Bowman street woman who heard the sound of falling glass notified police. Three cruisers went to the scene and Freeman was found lying along a fence not more than a block from the burglarized shop.

Taylor to Lead Panel Study

Maurice W. Taylor, general secretary of the Mansfield YMCA, will preside at the three-day annual convention of the Ohio Association of Soldiers Relief Commissioners and County Service Officers in Columbus, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Taylor, president of the group, will serve as moderator for a panel discussion Saturday on a proposal to merge soldiers relief with the department of public welfare.

The three-day session will also include reports of the soldiers relief commissioners, county veterans service officers, the discussion of the World War II Veterans Compensation Fund of Ohio, and the election of new officers of the group for the 1948-49 term.

BICYCLE STOLEN

Earl Bastings, Fairfax avenue, reported to police late yesterday that his bicycle, valued at $15, was taken from near the Ritz theater between 3 and 5 p. m.

Sharon Levy Vote Date Set

A special election on a proposed four-mill levy for the Sharon township school district will be held July 13. The Richland County board of elections in a special meeting Monday approved submission of the issue to the voters on that date.

If approved, the levy will provide additional funds for the district which is now $4,900 in arrears in tuition payments to the Shelby district, according to County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe.

The special election will be the first held in the county in many years, election board officials said. A 60 per cent majority is needed for approval of the levy.

Referee Hears Three Appeals

Richard Tobin, referee of the State Industrial commission of Ohio, today heard three appeals of recent commission decisions in the appeals court room here.

The cases were those of John DePue, John Swank and Albert Montavon.

Paul R. VanSuch, assistant attorney general of Ohio, represented the industrial commission in the hearings.

Clinic Canceled

Because of the remodeling operations on the third floor of the city building, there will be no baby clinic Wednesday afternoon, the health department announced today. The next clinic will be announced as rooms are available for use.

SPRUCED UP—

The interior of the city building was getting a face-lifting today. Workers employed by the Port Clinton Decorating company were painting the third floor rooms, giving the building a bright, fresh look. The walls will be painted a light greenish blue and the ceilings an off-color white.

★

LOTS OF MONEY—

There was $700 000 more in the Richland county treasury today, and county commissioners and Sheriff Frank E. Robinson breathed easier. The money, received yesterday from a Cleveland bonding firm, was in payment of building bonds of the Tuberculosis sanatorium fund. Commissioners delivered the bonds yesterday in Cleveland and returned with a certified check last night. Robinson went along to guard the bonds and check.

★

INVADE PARK—

The 17-year locusts have become a veritable plague in South park. Millions of the creatures are coming out of the ground in the park and it's possible to shovel them from beneath trees. The shells left by the locusts cover the trees and the ground beneath them. While it's expected that the locusts will damage smaller trees in the park, there's no reason for picnickers to avoid the area for the locusts aren't vicious.

The Richland County Association of Township Trustees and Clerks will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the common pleas court room. Attorney Robert Levering of Mt. Vernon will be the speaker. He is Democratic candidate for congress in the 17th district.

Mansfield Ordinance Different

City Prohibits Use By All

Municipal ordinances prohibiting the use of loudspeakers on the streets "without official permission" were declared unconstitutional by the United States supreme court yesterday.

Mansfield has a more than 40-year-old ordinance that unconditionally prohibits "instruments for producing and reproducing sound." Although the Mansfield ordinance does not specifically mention loud speakers, it has been invoked many times in past years to prevent various groups from using one.

There was some doubt however, as to whether or not the Supreme Court's 5 to 4 decision would affect the Mansfield law. The Lockport, N. Y., ordinance that the court held was unconstitutional places authority to grant permission for use of loud speakers in the discretion of the police. Mansfield's ordinance, however, prohibits use of such devices by any person or group indiscriminately.

NO DISCRETION

On the basis of the Mansfield ordinance, the 1948 senior class at Senior high school was refused permission to use an amplifier for its Christmas carol sing in Central Park last December. That refusal was in line with the policy that had been followed for years in refusing all requests for use of loud speakers, irrespective of whether the use was for commercial civic, religious or other purposes.

Justice William O. Douglas delivered the Supreme Court's majority opinion. He said the ordinance violated the free speech guarantee of the First Amendment.

Joining with Douglas in the majority were Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson and Justices Wiley B. Rutledge, Hugo L. Black and Frank Murphy.

The ruling came in the case of Samuel Saia, a Buffalo, N. Y., member of the Jehovah's Witness sect. Saia operated a sound truck without police permit during four outdoor meetings by the religious sect in a Lockport park. He was sentenced to 120 days in jail and fined $100.

CONVICTION REVERSED

Saia's conviction in the Lockport police court was unanimously upheld by higher New York courts.

Reversing those rulings, Douglas said:

"Loudspeakers are today indispensable instruments of effective public speech.

"The sound truck has become an accepted method of political campaigning. It is the way people are reached.

"Must a candidate for governor or the Congress depend on the whim or caprice of the chief of police in order to use his sound truck for campaigning?"

Inmate Flees OSR Work Crew

Mansfield reformatory officials broadcast a state-wide alarm late yesterday for the capture of Lester Dernier, 27, who escaped from a work crew on the grounds at 2:30 p. m. yesterday.

Dernier was received form Lorain county on Sept. 6, 1947, to serve from one to 15 years for burglary.

Players' Group To Pick Officers

Officers for the 1948-1949 season of the Mansfield Community Players will be chosen Friday night at a special meeting of the Players board of governors at the home of Mrs. Trudy Clark, 293 Cline avenue.

The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. Plans for the Players' summer festival will be discussed.

'Vacation-Bound' Special Proves Delightful Revue

By NITA BRANSON

Pupils of Marguerite Speas brought their "Vacation Bound" special into Senior high auditorium exactly on time at 8 o'clock last night, much to the surprise of dozens of parents and friends who hadn't expected such prompt service. As a result many of them had to find their seats in the nearly-filled 1,100-seat auditorium after the show started.

There was a lot of pretty girls and a lot of nice rhythm in the Speas annual revue. Most of the dancers were girls but there were enough boys in the cast to lend spice to the performance.

As in most amateur talent revues, it seemed a bit too long but considering the number of pupils, that is understandable.

Judy Mehl, Shirley Long, Patty Wyatt, Donna Matthes, Karen Baker, Barbara Wald and Linda Harbaugh made up the "train." They came "choo-choo-ing" onto the stage, their small suit cases held up to provide lighted windows, which shone out brightly on the darkened stage. They also took the guests "Homeward Bound" at the end of the show.

In between there was some fine tap dancing by Muriel Beer who drove her 10 little "ponies" in suggestive dance steps. Small Linda Mercurio was good as the "Tapping Doll." Joanna Burns and Chad Putnam, as the "Trick Tots" in some acrobatic stunts, and Marlene Beck and Robert Knackstedt gave a "different sort" of a dance in 'Shoe Shine Rhythm."

In the first act, Judy Amsbaugh provided the comic act. Her eccentric dancing was one of the hits of the evening.

The second act started with a beautiful "Moonlight Interlude" ballet, with a score or more of tap dancers, from small nine and ten-year-olds to teen-agers, doing some lovely toe dancing. Harlene McLaughlin as the moon princes in this act was good.

Naturally it is impossible to mention more than a few of the beautifully costumed and excellent acts, but altogether it made a delightful ensemble of dance numbers. Music for the prologue and during intermission was furnished by the Senior high school orchestra led by J. Merton Holcombe. Pianists during the revue were Amanda Mowry and Martha Thomas.

The revue will be repeated at 8 o'clock tonight.

Giants Take First Place In National

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK—(UP)—According to that well-known author, Leo Durocher, who also manages the Brooklyn Dodgers, "nice guys finish last," but Zach Taylor and his battling Browns from St. Louis were trying hard today to prove he is wrong.

Taylor's band of "new look" ball players was consigned to the American league cellar long before the season began, and it is possible they may yet finish there, which will prove that Durocher is a prophet as well as an editorial whiz.

But they aren't going to land at the bottom if hustle, a grand team spirit and some pretty good all-around ball playing will keep them higher. It is hard to get too enthusiastic about a club which has just ended a six-game losing streak, but even in defeat the Brownies didn't beat themselves.

NED GARVER WINS

Which was precisely what occurred yesterday as 23-year-old Ned Garver, a lad from Ney, O., kept his pitching wits about him and earned a hard-fought, 5 to 3, victory over the Yankees. He was tagged for 11 hits including home runs by Johnny Lindell and Phil Rizzuto, but when trouble threatened he bore down, leaving 11 Yankees stranded on base. Paul Lehner who drove in two runs with a homer and a scoring fly led the 12-hit St. Louis attack.

The Senators showed that they have got Bob Gillespie's number, but good. They belted him out of the box last night for the second time in three days as they licked the White Sox, 7 to 1.

CUBS LOSE AGAIN

The Braves with Jim Russell putting on a personal hitting spree, defeated the Cubs, 9 to 5, at Chicago for their second straight victory there. It was Chicago's sixth straight loss.

The Giants grabbed first place once again, thanks to a 9 to 5 victory over the Pirates while the Cardinals were losing to Philadelphia, 5 to 1. Bobby Thomson was the big gun of the Giant 13-hit barrage, driving in four runs with a single, a triple and a homer.

Homers told the story in the Card defeat. Dick Sisler's two with a man on each time, gave the Phils the difference in the ball game. Stan Musial's circuiter in the fourth spoiled the shutout for Dutch Leonard.

Cleveland-Philadelphia and Detroit-Boston were rained out.

Gorman-Rupp Softballers Battle Akron Firestones

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp's softball team will go after its seventh victory in eight starts at 8:30 p. m. tonight when the highly-regarded Akron Firestone team invades Gorman-Rupp's Bowman street field.

The Akron team is a member of the fast Ohio Inter-City softball league, having finished in the runner-up position in the past two years. Firestone has broken even in two league starts this season.

Bill Skidmore, a fast ball pitcher, is the standout of the Firestone mound staff, while his catcher, Jack Ozburn, is a former basketball star from Monmouth college and played for a time with Denver's great AAU cage team.

FAST MAN

Base-stealer of the squad is Third-baseman Hugh Davis, former Akron University sprint star. Paul DuCharm, second-baseman, is a former All-American basketball player from Notre Dame.

Gorman-Rupp Manager Nick Weber has not named his starting pitcher for tonight's game but will probably use either Bobby Regula or Kenny Windsor.

Thursday Gorman-Rupp goes to Willard for its only game of the week in the North Central Ohio Inter-City league.

Beginning tonight, all exhibition games at the G-R field will be nine inning affairs.

BATTING — Jimmy Russell, Braves — Blasted two home runs and two doubles and drove in five runs to lead Boston to a 9-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

PITCHING—Dutch Leonard, Phillies—Pitched a five-hitter for Philadelphia for a 5-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. A home run by Stan Musial spoiled his shutout bid.

Psychic Peer Says Tony Zale By Kayo

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(UP)—A lot of guys brag about reading the crystal ball and what not? But it took Fearless Fraley to invade the women-sacred precincts of the gypsy tea kettle today to learn that Tony Zale will knock out Rocky Graziano for the middleweight championship tomorrow night.

That's straight from Madame Pandora, psychic peer of the pasteboards in this principality. And the madame goes even further in disclosing that it will be in either the first or the tenth round.

Don't think it was easy. It took a lot of time—and two bucks.

First off, I figured the gypsy district in the lower east side was the best bet. But hours of wandering through the tenements, questioning cops, cab drivers and newsboys failed to produce a single fortune teller. It's a lost art down there where they scratch hard for a dollar.

But the classified adds listed the "Gypsy Tea Kettle—Tea Leaves Read Gratis!" and there was Madame Pandora!

JUMPING WITH GAGS

The joint was pumping with females, and not a man in sight. But old fearless, feeling like the Black Angus in the crockery department, marched in and demanded an audition.

"You'll have to wait," said a red-haired waitress, waving around at the jammed tables where women waited, like poised sprinters, to have their tea leaves explained.

"We're always busy," she commented. "A lot of women want to know how to get a husband—or how to get rid of one."

Old fearless waited. But I'd rather fight Zale and Graziano at the same time than do it over again. Finally Pandora was ready for Fraley and we got on with it.

"What are their birthdays and complexions?" madame asked.

The answer was that Zale was a mud gutter blond born May 29, 1914, and Graziano a black-haired bruiser who made his debut June 7, 1922. Came a lot of business with a deck of unusual cards and Pandora explained:

"They both vibrate the same for both are under the sign of Gemini."

FIGHT LIKE KIN

That sounded right. They not only fight like brothers, but like twins maneuvering for a legacy.

"The sun is in Gemini," she added, "which benefits both."

With guarantees of $120,000 for Graziano and $60,000 for Zale, she was correct there.

"It's a tough fight," Pandora continued. "Jupiter opposes them and they'll have to work like hell." An understatement.

"But, according to the cards, and I've proved it three times—the light one, this Zale, will win!"

So it's Zale all the way—in Madame Pandora's cards.

And if it turns out she's right, she'll be swamped by every gambler on Broadway!

Sisler Homers Defeat Cards

(By Associated Press)

It never fails—trade away a guy and he comes back to make you rue the day.

Eddie Dyer, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is the latest to feel the wrath of a discarded player. Dyer must have had moments of regret last night when Dick Sisler, former Redbird first baseman, cracked two home runs to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 5-1 victory over the Cardinals.

Sisler was traded by Dyer to the Phillies just before the opening of the season for Infielder Ralph Lapointe after he lost out as regular first baseman to Nippy Jones.

The son of baseball's immortal George Sisler not only whipped his former mates single-handedly by adding a single to his pair of round trippers and driving in four runs, but knocked the Cards right out of the National league lead.

171 Aspirants Check In for National Open

LOS ANGELES —(INS)— Practice shooting continued today as 171 aspirants to the National Open golf crown checked in with officials for America's greatest golf tournament at the tough Riviera country club in Los Angeles.

Sam Snead, the West Virginia long distance hitter, went over the course yesterday with a sharp 67—four under par—serving notice to eight former title-holders and defending champion Lew Worsham that he was in tune for Thursday's opening play.

Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., Bobby Locke, Tommy Armour, Olin Dutra, with late arrival Jimmy Demaret, who won the $10,000 Albuquerque tournament Sunday with a 20-under-par card, were taking healthy swings today at old man par.

The warming-up process ends tomorrow. It is expected that 20,000 spectators will watch the 72-hole tourney.

Joe Mayer Paces Moose Loop Golf With 34 Score

Joe Mayer, Mansfield golf pro, fired a par 34 over the Coolridge links yesterday to pace Moose league golfers. Ray Malaska, Mayer's opponent, pressed him all the way by shooting a 37. Jona Scadova also had a 37.

The Treasurers won three of four matches to maintain their league lead with 21 points. Moosehaven is second with 18 followed by the Prelates and Moosehart with 16; Jr. Governors, 15; Herders and Governors, 14; and Trustees, 5.

Tribe-Bosox Open Tonight

CLEVELAND — (INS) — The Cleveland Indians, after having their final game with the Philadelphia Athletics rained out, move to Boston today to open a three-game stand.

The tribe takes on the sox tonight, tomorrow and Thursday before shuttling over to New York for a four-game series.

Manager Lou Boudreau has decided to give Gen Bearden the call tonight to enable Feller to pitch tomorrow and be ready for Sunday's doubleheader with the Yankees. Bob Lemon will take the mound Thursday.

Even Tilts Slated In Ball Loops

Two tough contests in the Independent league and a pair of interesting tilts in the Girls' circuit are scheduled tonight beginning at 6 o'clock.

Komito's Clothes, lone remaining Independent unbeaten team, goes against Penn Auto at Johns park and Greystone Nite club meets American Legion Post 72 at North Lake park.

Last week, Penn Auto defeated the Legion, 3 to 1. The latter team tied Komito's two weeks ago. Greystone beat Sport Center, 13 to 11 while the Legion beat the same team, 3 to 0.

Ohio Sport Center, holder of a bye, will entertain the Galion Perfection Steel team at 6 p. m. at Liberty park.

BATTLE FOR LEAD

Girls' league teams will be battling for the lead and to stay out of the cellar. Undefeated Ohio Brass and Tappan Stove collide in the top contest at John Todd park while Lumbermens and Westinghouse meet at Prospect park. The latter teams will be gunning for their first wins.

Brass and Tappan are tied for first place.

Games in the Park and Church league last night were rained out.

The Park tilts have been rescheduled for Thursday at 6 p. m. Johns will meet the Gorman-Rupp juniors at the G-R park while Prospect and North Lake battle at Liberty park.

Leaders Battle Tough Teams In N-J Golf League

The most important round of play thus far is scheduled this evening in the News-Journal A golf league at Possum Run.

Blue Goose Tavern and Ideal Billiards, co-leaders of the league, will take on runnerup teams which could dethrone them with little trouble should their irons get hot.

Blue Goose will meet Orr Typewriter which is one point off the pace while Ideal faces Penn Auto, two points back with seven points.

In other fourth round matches, Smokehouse, minus its ace, Al Hager, will meet Myers Supply and Flexible Conveyor will battle PD's Bar.

Gorman-Rupp Backs Ahead

MARION—Mansfield Gorman-Rupp backed into first place in the North Central Ohio Inter-City Softball league last night when the Ashland Indians fell before Smitty's Grill here, 3-1.

The Indians had been tied with Gorman-Rupp for the loop lead but are now in a second place deadlock with Marion. Both teams have two victories and one defeat while Mansfield has won both of its tests.

Bobby Mitchell Boosts Home 6 Ascot Winners

AKRON — (INS) — Bobby Mitchell was the talk of the racing circles today after booting home six winners in the two-day-old meeting at Ascot Park in Akron.

The young jockey brought in three winners on opening day Saturday and rode three more home yesterday.

Sets Record, Books Don't Get It

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)—Ollie Matson, 18-year-old husky who raced 440 yards in world record prep school time of 47.1 seconds, won't get his name in any record books.

Worse, he may not get an opportunity to beat the official record of 46.2, or the new unofficial mark of 48 flat by Gene Cole of Lancaster, Ohio.

Here's why:

1—Ollie was not competing in an interscholastic meet, but in the Pacific association AAU meet, at Berkeley, Calif., Saturday.

2—He finished second. Records aren't figured on second places.

3—Ollie's time was unofficial. The official watches were stopped by the great Herb McKenley at 46 flat—.3 seconds faster than McKenley's official 46.3 mark.

Matson has completed his interscholastic track schedule, but his coach is trying hard to find a meet which would give Ollie a chance at the prep record.

Meantime, the coach, Louis Vasquez at San Francisco's Washington high school, is prepping him for the Olympic tryouts. Matson's 47.1 was the fastest 440 this year by a U.S. runner; collegians included.

Vasquez had to trick Matson into racing the 440; Ollie didn't want to step up from the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Vasquez worked it this way: He convinced the youth he needed to train at 440 yards to build stamina. Then he had Ollie run 440 yards in a couple of mile relays. Finally, he got him into a quarter-mile race. Ollie won easily.

Then came Saturday. Ollie agreed to run for the experience. "Believing he would fall down halfway through the race, because of McKenley's pace," Vasquez said.

"He found that he was fresh and full of run at the 220 mark and actually gained three yards on the flying McKenley in the last half of the race."

In the same meet, Matson won a high school 100 yards in 9.6 seconds.

PS: Tip to coaches: Matson plans to attend San Francisco city college next year, to be coached by Grover Klemmer, ex-USC speedster who shared the world record at 46.4 until McKenley came along.

Then: Ollie plans to transfer to a larger school where track is a prime sport.

Farm Tools Nips Perrysville, 9-7

Farm Tools of the Industrial league defeated the Perrysville Pottery nine in a softball game yesterday, 9-7. Kenny Berry and Virgil Noble led Farm Tools with two hits apiece while Lozier paced Perrysville with a home run and two singles.
